

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That all Negroes purchased by or on account of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and serving in any of His Majesty's Forces, shall be deemed and taken to be free in every respect as if born free in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, and shall be considered as Soldiers having voluntarily enlisted in His Majesty's Service; provided that nothing contained

XLIX. And be it enacted, That no Secretary at War, Paymaster General of the Army, Paymaster, or any other Officer whatsoever, or their under Officers, shall receive any Fees or make any Deductions whatsoever out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall grow due from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, other than the usual Deductions, or such other necessary Deductions as shall from Time to Time be required by His Majesty's Regulations, or by His Majesty's Order signified by the Secretary at War; and every Paymaster or other Officer having received any Officer's or Soldier's Pay, who shall unlawfully detain the same for the Space of One Month, or refuse to pay the same when it shall become due, according to the several Rates and agreeably to the several Regulations established by His Majesty's Orders, shall, upon Proof thereof before a Court-martial, be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit One hundred Pounds, and the Informer, if a Soldier, if he demands it, shall be discharged from any further Service; provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Secretary at War to give Orders for withholding the Pay of any Officer

Penalty for Disobedience
by Agents.

LI. ' And whereas by Petition of Right, in the Third Year of King Charles the First, it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burthened with the sojourning of Soldiers against their Wills; and by a Clause in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred and sixty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three-pence, for paying and disbanding the Forces, it is declared and enacted, that no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whomsoever, should thenceforth presume to place, quarter, or billet any Soldier upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality, or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall be lawful for any Subject or Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier, notwithstanding any Warrant or Billetting whatsoever: And whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was enacted, that no Officer, Soldier, or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, should, at any Time thereafter, be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Seaport Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another: But forasmuch as at this Time, during the Continuance of this Act, there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of Regiments, Troops, and Companies in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Constables of Parishes and Places, and other Persons specified in this Act, in England and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service, and Persons receiving Pay in His Majesty's Army, and the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Cavalry, and also all Staff and Field Officers Horses, and all Bât and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act (taking care in Ireland not to billet less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Cavalry as specially provided); and that they shall be received by the Occupiers of such Houses in which they are so allowed to be billeted, and be furnished by such Victuallers with proper Accommodation in such Houses, or if any Victualler shall not have sufficient Accommodation in the House upon which a Soldier is billeted, then in some good and sufficient Quarters to be provided by such Victualler in the immediate Neighbourhood, and in England with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates herein-after provided; and at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them, whether Infantry or Cavalry, be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route; and in all Places where Cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in one and the same House, except in case of Necessity; and in no other Case whatsoever shall there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in no Case shall a Man and his Horse be billeted at a greater Distance from each other than One hundred Yards; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs, when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue Proportion of Soldiers billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice, then to Two or more Justices, within whose Jurisdiction such Soldiers are billeted, such Justices respectively shall have Power to order such of the Soldiers to be removed, and to be billeted upon other Persons, as they shall see Cause; and when any of His Majesty's Cavalry or any Horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act, who shall have no Stables, then and in such Case, upon the written Requisition of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Troop, or Detachment, the Constable is hereby required to billet the Men and their Horses, or Horses only, upon some other Person or Persons who have Stables by this Act liable to have Officers and Soldiers billeted upon them; and upon Complaint being made by the Person or Persons to whose House or Stables the said Men and Horses shall have been so removed to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Men or Horses shall be so billeted, it shall be lawful for such Justices to order a proper Allowance to be paid by the Person relieved to the Persons receiving such Men and Horses, or to be applied in furnishing the requisite Accommodation; and Commanding Officers may exchange any Man or Horse billeted in any Place with another Man or Horse billeted in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such Houses; and the Constables are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses so exchanged accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, at the Request of any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding any Soldiers requiring Billets, to extend any Routes or enlarge the District within which Billets shall be required, in such Manner as shall appear to be most convenient to the Troops; provided that, to prevent or punish all Abuses in billeting Soldiers, it shall be lawful for any Justice within his Jurisdiction, by Warrant or Order under his Hand, to require any Constable to give him an Account in Writing of the Number of Officers and Soldiers who shall be quartered by such Constable, together with the Names of the Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, stating the Street or Place where such Persons dwell, and the Sign, if any, belonging to those Houses; and it shall be lawful to billet Officers and Soldiers in Scotland according to the Provisions of the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh.

LII. And be it enacted, That the Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's Foot Guards shall be billeted within the City and Liberties of Westminster, and Places adjacent, lying in the County of Middlesex (except the City of London) and in the County of Surrey, and in the Borough of Southwark, in the same Manner and under the same Regulations as in other Parts of England, in all Cases for which particular Provision is not made by this Act; and the High Constable shall, on Receipt of the Order for billeting Soldiers, deliver Precepts to the several Constables within their respective Divisions, in pursuance of which the said Constables shall billet such Officers and Soldiers equally and proportionally on the Houses subjected thereto by this Act; and the said Constables shall, at every General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said City and Liberties, Counties and Boroughs respectively, make and deliver to the Justices then in open Session assembled, upon Oath, which Oath the said Justices are hereby required to administer, Lists, signed Military Officers not to act as Justices in billeting.

LIII. And be it enacted, That no Justice having or executing any Military Office or Commission in any Part of the United Kingdom shall, directly or indirectly, be concerned in the billeting or appointing Quarters for any Soldier in the Regiment, Troop, or Company under the immediate Command of such Justice, but that all Warrants, Acts, or Things so appointed by such Justice for or concerning the same shall be void.

Allowance to Innkeepers.

LIV. And be it enacted, That the Innholder or other Person on whom any Soldier is billeted in England shall, if required by such Soldier, furnish him for every Day on the March, and for a Period not exceeding Two Days when halted at the intermediate Place upon the March, and for the Day of the Arrival at the Place of final Destination, with One hot Meal in each Day, the Meal to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as may be fixed by His Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper, and for such Meal the Innholder or other Person furnishing the same shall be paid the Sum of Ten-pence; and all Innholders and other Persons on whom Soldiers may be billeted in England, except when on the March, and entitled to be furnished with the hot Meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such Soldier with Candles, Vinegar, and Salt, and shall allow them the Use of Fire, and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem for each Soldier; and the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person on whom any of the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Forces shall be billeted, in England, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ten-pence per Diem for each Horse, and in Ireland the Sum to be paid for Forage to the Innholder or other Person for Horses billeted by virtue of this Act shall be the Rate established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland; and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, when such Horses are provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of the Houses on which they are billeted, the Sum of Four-pence per Week for each Horse shall be paid; and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay for any Officers or Soldiers shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to them respectively; and if any Officer as aforesaid shall not pay the same, upon Complaint, and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses, at the next Quarter Sessions for the County or City where such Quarters were situated, the Secretary at War is hereby required (upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath was made of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing,) to give Orders to the Regimental Agent to pay the said Sums, and to charge the same against such Officers; and in case of any Soldier being suddenly ordered to march, and that the respective Commanding Officers are not enabled to make Payment of the Sums due for the Lodging of the Men and Stabling for the Horses, every such Officer shall, before his Departure, make up the Account with every Person upon whom such Soldier may have been billeted, and sign a Certificate thereof; which Account and Certificate shall be transmitted to the Agent of the Regiment, who is hereby required to make immediate Payment thereof, and to charge the same to the Account of such Officer.

LV. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions in this Act contained relating to England shall be construed to extend to Wales and the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and all Powers and Provisions relating to the British Isles shall be construed to extend to Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and all Isles thereto and to England and Ireland belonging; and all Powers and Provisions relating to Soldiers shall be construed to extend to Non-commissioned Officers, unless when otherwise provided; and all Powers and Provisions relating to Justices shall be construed to extend to all Magistrates authorized to act as such in their respective Jurisdictions, and to Chief Magistrates of exclusive local Jurisdictions; and all the Powers given to and Regulations made for the Conduct of Constables in relation to the billeting of Officers and Soldiers, and all Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect thereof, shall extend to all Tithingmen, Headboroughs, and such like Officers, and High Constables and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, Villages, Hamlets, Parishes, and Places in England and Ireland, who shall act in the Execution of this Act in relation to billeting; and all Provisions for billeting Officers and Soldiers in Victualling Houses shall extend and apply to all Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, and to the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, whether British or Foreign, to be drank in their own Houses, or Places thereunto belonging, and to all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cider, or Metheglin, by Retail in England and Ireland; and in Ireland, when there shall not be found sufficient Room in such Houses, then to billeting Soldiers in such Manner as has been heretofore customary; provided that no Officer or Soldier shall be billeted in England in any private Houses, or in any Canteen held or occupied under the Authority of the Ordnance Department, or upon Persons who keep Taverns only, being Vintners of the City of London, admitted to their Freedom of the said Company in right of Patrimony or Apprenticeship, notwithstanding such Persons who keep such Taverns only have taken out Victualling Licences, nor in the House of any Distiller kept for distilling Brandy and Strong Waters, nor in the House of any Shopkeeper whose principal Dealing shall be more in other Goods and Merchandize than in Brandy and Strong Waters,

 ‘ William in Bengal on the Twenty-second Day of April One ‘ thousand eight hundred and thirty-four should be the First Gover‘ nor General of India under that Act, and that such Persons as ‘ should be Members of Council of the same Presidency on that ‘ Day should be respectively Members of the Council constituted ‘ by that Act ; and it is also enacted that the said Council shall ‘ from Time to Time assemble at such Place or Places as shall be ‘ appointed by the said Governor General in Council within the ‘ Majesty’s Revenue, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof, ‘ and by other Enactments subsequent thereto, the Number of ‘ Oaths and Affirmations required to be taken and made in those ‘ Departments has been greatly diminished, and the beneficial ‘ Operation of the said recited Act and such other subsequent ‘ Enactments gives Ground to believe that the Number of Oaths

 ‘ those and in other Departments of the State:’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and might, but for the passing of this Act, be required to be taken or any other Purpose whatsoever, it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury or any Three of them, if they shall so think fit, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to substitute a Declaration to the same Effect as the Oath, solemn Affirmation, or Affidavit which might but for the passing of this Act be required to be taken or made; and the Person who might under the Act or Acts imposing the same be required to take or make such Oath, solemn Affirmation, or Affidavit shall, in Presence of

CAP. XVI.

An Act for altering and amending the Law regarding Commitments by Courts of Equity for Contempts, and the taking Bills pro Confesso, in Ireland.

[30th July 1835.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law regarding Commitments by Courts of Equity for Contempts, and the taking Bills pro Confesso, in Ireland ;’ be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Marshal of the Marshalsea of the Four Courts Prison shall keep a Register of the Names of all Persons committed by the Courts of Equity for Contempts, stating the Dates and the Grounds of their several Commitments, and the Dates of their respective Discharges, and shall, on the Twentieth Day of January, the Twentieth Day of April, the Twentieth Day of July, and the Twentieth Day of October, in every Year, make a Report to the Lord Chancellor of the Names and Descriptions of such Prisoners in his Custody on each of such Days respectively, with the Causes and Dates of their respective Commitments.

Marshal of the Four Courts Prison to keep a Register of Persons committed for Contempts, and report Four Times a Year to the Lord Chancellor.

Manner of proceeding in case of Persons not appearing within the usual Time after Subpoena or other Process has been issued.

II. ‘ And whereas sometimes Persons have withdrawn themselves beyond the Seas, or otherwise absconded, to avoid appearing in Courts of Equity, or being served with Process for that Purpose, or, being brought into Court by Habeas Corpus, have refused to appear ;’ for Remedy of the Inconvenience thence ensuing, be it further enacted, That if in any Suit, not being for the Foreclosure of a Mortgage, which hath been or hereafter shall be commenced in any Court of Equity, any Defendant against whom any Subpoena or other Process shall issue shall not cause his Appearance to be entered upon such Process within such Time and in such Manner as according to the Rules of the Court the same ought to have been entered in case such Process had been duly served, and an Affidavit or Affidavits shall be made to the Satisfaction of such Court that such Defendant is beyond the Seas, or that upon Inquiry at his usual Place of Abode he could not be found so as to be served with such Process, and that there is just Ground to believe that such Defendant is gone out of the Realm, or has otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with the Process of such Court, then and in such Case the Court out of which such Process issued may make an Order directing and appointing such Defendant to appear at a certain Day therein to be named ; and a Copy of such Order shall, within Fourteen Days after such Order made, be inserted in the Dublin Gazette, and published on some Lord’s Day immediately after Divine Service in the Parish Church where such Defendant made his usual Abode within Thirty Days next before such his absenting, absenting, and also a Copy of such Order shall within the Time aforesaid be posted up in some public Place at the Royal Exchange in Dublin; and if the Defendant do not appear within the Time limited by such Order, or within such further Time as the Court shall appoint, then, on Proof made of such Publication of such Order as aforesaid, the Court, being satisfied of the Truth thereof, may order the Plaintiff's Bill to be taken pro Confesso, and make such Decree thereupon as shall be thought just, and may thereupon issue Process to compel the Performance of such Decree, either by an immediate Sequestration of the Real and Personal Estate and Effects of the Party so absenting (if any such can be found), or such Part thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the Demands of the Plaintiff in the said Suit, or by causing Possession of the Estate or Effects demanded by the Bill to be delivered to the Plaintiff, or otherwise, as the Nature of the Case shall require; and the said Court may likewise order such Plaintiff to be paid and satisfied his Demands out of the Estate or Effects so sequestered, according to the true Intent and Meaning of such Decree, such Plaintiff first giving sufficient Security in such Sum as the Court shall think proper to abide such Order touching the Restitution of such Estate or Effects as the Court shall think proper to make concerning the same upon the Defendant's Appearance to defend such Suit, and paying such Costs to the Plaintiff as the Court shall order; but in case such Plaintiff shall refuse or neglect to give such Security as aforesaid, then the said Court shall order the Estate or Effects so sequestered, or whereof the Possession shall be decreed to be delivered, to remain under the Direction of the Court, either by appointing a Receiver thereof, or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem meet, until the Appearance of the Defendant to defend such Suit, and his paying such Costs to the Plaintiff as the said Court shall think reasonable, or until such Order shall be made therein as the Court shall think just.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person against whom any Decree shall be made upon Refusal or Neglect to enter his Appearance, or appoint a Clerk in Court or Attorney to act on his Behalf, shall be in Custody or forthcoming, so that he may be served with a Copy of such Decree, then he shall be served with a Copy thereof before any Process shall be taken out to compel the Performance thereof.

Persons in Custody so neglecting to be served with a Copy of the Decree.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Decree shall be made in pursuance of this Act against any Person being out of the Realm, or absconding in manner aforesaid, at the Time such Decree is pronounced, and such Person shall within Seven Years after the making such Decree return or become publicly visible, then and in such Case he shall likewise be served with a Copy of such Decree within a reasonable Time after his Return or public Appearance shall be known to the Plaintiff; and in case any Defendant against whom such Decree shall be made shall within Seven Years after the making such Decree happen to die before his or her Return into this Realm or appearing openly as aforesaid, or shall within the Time last before mentioned die in Custody before his or her being served with a Copy of such Decree, then his or her Heir, if such Defendant shall have any Real Estate sequestered, or whereof Possession shall have been delivered to the Plaintiff, and such Heir may be found, or if such Heir shall be a Feme Covert, Infant, or non compos mentis, the Husband, Guardian, or Committee of such Heir respectively, or if the Personal Estate of such Defendant be sequestered, or Possession thereof delivered to the Plaintiff, then his Executor or Administrator (if any such there be), may and shall be served with a Copy of such Decree within a reasonable Time after it shall be known to the Plaintiff that the Defendant is dead, and who is his Heir, Executor, or Administrator, or where he may be served therewith.

Persons out of the Realm affected by such Decrees, if they return within Seven Years, to be served with a Copy, or, in case of Death, their Heirs, &c.

Persons not petitioning a Rehearing of the Cause within Six Months, the Decree to be absolutely confirmed.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person so served with a Copy of such Decree shall not within Six Months after such Service appear and petition to have the said Cause reheard, such Decree so made as aforesaid shall stand absolutely confirmed against the Person so served with a Copy thereof, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and all Persons claiming or to claim by, from, or under him or any of them by virtue of any Act done or to be done subsequent to the Commencement of any Suit.

Persons petitioning a Rehearing within Seven Years, and giving Security for Costs, admitted to answer, and the Cause to be heard again.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person so served with a Copy of such Decree shall within Six Months after such Service, or if any Person not being so served shall within Seven Years next after the making such Decree, appear in Court and petition to be heard with respect to the Matter of such Decree, and shall pay down or give Security for Payment of such Costs as the Court shall think reasonable in that Behalf, the Person so petitioning, or his Representatives, or any Person claiming under him by virtue of any Act done before the Commencement of the Suit, may be admitted to answer the Bill exhibited, and Issue may be joined, and Witnesses on both Sides examined, and such other Proceedings, Decree, and Execution may be had thereon, as there might have been in case the same Party had originally appeared, and the Proceedings had then been newly begun, or as if no former Decree or Proceedings had been in the same Cause.

Persons not appearing within Seven Years, and making such Petition, to be absolutely barred.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person against whom such Decree shall be made, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, shall not within Seven Years next after the making of such Decree appear and petition to have the Cause reheard, and pay down or give Security for Payment of such Costs as the Court shall think reasonable in that Behalf, such Decree made as aforesaid shall stand absolutely confirmed against the Person against whom such Decree shall be made, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and against all Persons claiming or to claim by, from, or under him, or any of them, by virtue of any Act done or to be done subsequent to the Commencement of such Suit; and at the End of such Seven Years it shall and may be lawful for the Court to make such further Order as shall be just and reasonable, according to the Circumstances of the Case.

Not to affect Persons beyond the Seas, unless in certain Cases.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to warrant or make good any Proceeding against any Person beyond the Seas, unless it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court by Affidavit or Affidavits, before the making of such Decree, that such Person had been in Ireland within Two Years next before the Subpoena in such Suit issued against such Person.

IX. ' And

IX. ‘ And whereas in many Cases Persons having Privilege of Parliament are named as Defendants in Suits instituted in Courts of Equity against them, either alone or jointly with other Persons, for enforcing against them Demands and Duties cognizable in Courts of Equity, and in some Cases such Defendants having Privileges of Parliament have stood out to the Return of Process of Sequestration issued against them for enforcing Appearance, and such Process of Sequestration hath not been found sufficient to enforce such Appearance;’ be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Defendant having Privilege of Parliament shall, upon a Return of Process of Sequestration issued against him for not putting in an Appearance to any original or other Bill of Complaint instituted against him in a Court of Equity for enforcing Discovery and Relief, or Discovery alone, (as the Case may be,) neglect to appear, that then and in such Case such Court, upon producing the Return of such Sequestration in Court, may, on the Motion or other Application of the Plaintiff in such Cause, appoint a Clerk in Court to enter an Appearance for such Defendant so having Privilege of Parliament, and such Proceedings may be thereupon had in the Cause as if the Party had actually appeared.

Appearances may be put in for Defendants having Privilege of Parliament in Courts of Equity, on Return of Process of Sequestration.

X. ‘ And whereas in many Cases it is necessary, on the Part of the Persons having legal Rights against Persons having Privilege of Parliament, to proceed by Bill in Equity against such Persons so having Privilege of Parliament, to obtain from them Discovery on Oath of Facts intended to be used or given in Evidence in Courts of Law against the Persons making such Discovery; and in Cases where such Persons having such Privilege as aforesaid shall stand out Process of Contempt, Parties entitled to such Discovery against them have not sufficient Means of compelling or obtaining the same in all Cases;’ be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, when any Defendant having Privilege of Parliament shall have appeared to any Bill filed against him seeking a Discovery upon Oath, or when an Appearance shall have been entered for such Defendant according to the Provisions aforesaid, and such Person shall refuse or neglect to put in his Answer to such Bill within the Time for that Purpose allowed by the Rules and Orders of such Court, that then it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff in such Suit to apply to the Court for an Order that such Bill shall be taken pro Confesso against such Defendant, and upon such Application such Court of Equity shall make an Order that such Bill shall be taken pro Confesso, unless the Defendant shall within Eight Days after being served with such Order show good Cause to the contrary.

In default of Answer to Bill in Equity against Persons having Privilege of Parliament, Bill shall be taken pro Confesso.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as any such Order shall have been pronounced by any such Court of Equity for taking such Bill pro Confesso, such Bill in Equity, or an examined Copy thereof, so taken pro Confesso, shall be taken and read in any Court of Law or Equity as Evidence of the Facts and Matters and Things therein contained, in the same Manner as if such Facts, Matters, and Things had been admitted to be true by the Answer of the Defendant put in to such Bill; and such Bill so taken pro Confesso shall be received and taken in Evidence of such and the same Facts, and on behalf of such and so many Persons, as Such Bill shall be read in Evidence as an Answer admitting the Facts.

the Answer of the Defendant to the said Bill could and might have been read and received in Evidence of in case such Answer had been put in by the Defendant thereto, and had admitted the same Facts, Matters, and Circumstances as in such Bill stated and set forth; and in like Manner every other Bill of Discovery taken pro Confesso, under any of the Provisions of this Act, shall or may be taken and read as Evidence of the Facts and Matters and Things therein contained, to the Extent aforesaid.

Rules for the Court of Chancery.

XII. And for remedying the Practice of Courts of Equity in regard to Process of Contempt and the taking of Bills pro Confesso, be it further enacted, That the Rules and Regulations herein-after provided and contained shall be adopted by the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, and shall from henceforth become Orders and Rules of the said Court of Chancery, and be observed and enforced in and by the said Court; (that is to say,)

1. That where a Defendant is confined for a Misdemeanor, and has been brought before the Court upon an Habeas Corpus, and thereupon has been turned over to the said Marshalsea, pro formâ, but has been carried back to the Prison from whence he came with his Cause, another Writ of Habeas Corpus may issue, directed to the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison to which he has been carried back, and thereupon the Defendant shall be brought into Court, and remanded to the Prison from whence he came, with his Cause, without being turned over again to the said Marshalsea, and the Bill may be taken pro Confesso in the same Manner in all respects as if the Defendant had been all along in the Custody of the Marshal of the said Marshalsea.
2. That if the Defendant, under Process of Contempt for not appearing or not answering, be in actual Custody, and shall not have been sooner brought to the Bar of the Court under Process to answer his Contempt, the Plaintiff, if the Contempt be not sooner cleared, shall bring the Defendant by an Habeas Corpus to the Bar of the Court within Thirty Days from the Time of his being actually in Custody, or detained (being already in Custody) upon Process of Contempt, and if the last Day of such Thirty Days shall happen out of Term, then within the Four first Days of the ensuing Term; and where the Defendant is in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms or of the Messenger upon an Attachment or other Process, the Plaintiff shall, within Ten Days after his being taken into such Custody, or if the last of such Ten Days shall happen out of Term, then within the first Four Days of the next ensuing Term, cause the Defendant to be brought to the Bar of the Court; and in case any such Defendant shall not be brought to the Bar of the Court within the respective Times aforesaid, the Sheriff, Gaoler or Keeper, Serjeant at Arms or Messenger, in whose Custody he shall be, shall thereupon discharge him out of Custody without Payment by him of the Costs of Contempt, which shall be payable by the Party on whose Behalf the Process issued; and this Rule shall apply to every Defendant in Custody before and at the Time of passing of this Act who shall not have been brought to the Bar of the Court, but the Thirty Days allowed in the first above-mentioned Case and the Ten

Ten Days allowed in the second above-mentioned Case shall be reckoned from the first Day of the next Term.

3. That if a Defendant, upon being brought before the Court upon an Habeas Corpus, shall make Oath (which shall be administered to him by the Registrar, and he shall be examined in open Court,) that he is unable by reason of Poverty to employ a Solicitor to put in his Answer, the Court shall thereupon refer it to a Master in Rotation to inquire into the Truth of that Allegation, and to report thereon to the Court forthwith, and thereupon the Court may make such Order as upon other Reports of the like Nature under the Provisions herein-after contained.
4. That on the Thirtieth Day of January, the Thirtieth Day of April, the Thirtieth Day of July, and the Thirtieth Day of October in every Year, or if any of those Days happen on a Sunday, then on the following Day, One of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, to be named by the Court, shall visit the said Marshalsea Prison, and examine the Prisoners confined there for Contempt, and shall report his Opinion on their respective Cases to the Court; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Court to order, if it shall see fit, that the Costs of the Contempt of any such Prisoner shall be paid out of the Interest and Dividends arising from the several Government or Parliamentary Securities standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, intituled 'Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery,' and 'Account of Securities purchased with Surplus Interest arising from Securities carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery,' or out of any Cash standing to either of such Accounts, or to any other Account which is now or hereafter may be standing to the Credit of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, (after and subject to the Payment of all Charges which by any Act heretofore passed are directed to be paid thereout,) and to assign a Solicitor and Counsel to such Prisoner, for putting in his Answer and defending him in forma pauperis, and to direct any such Prisoner, having previously done such Acts as the Court shall direct, to be discharged out of Custody; provided that if any such Defendant shall become entitled to any Funds out of such Cause, the same shall be applied, under the Direction of said Court, in the first instance, to the Reimbursement of the Suitors Fund.
5. That it shall be lawful for the Master visiting the said Marshalsea, or to whom the Case of a Prisoner shall be referred by the Court itself, to examine the Prisoner and all other Persons whom he may think it proper to examine upon Oath, and to administer an Oath or Oaths to any such Prisoner and other Persons accordingly, and to cause any Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of any Court of Law or Equity to bring and produce upon Oath before him any Records, Orders, Books, Papers, or other Writings belonging to the said Courts, or to any Officers within the same as such Officers.

6. That if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court that any such Prisoner is an Idiot, Lunatic, or of unsound Mind, although no Commission has issued, the Court shall appoint a Guardian to put in his Answer, and discharge the Defendant, providing for the Costs in any of the Ways pointed out by this Act, as shall seem just; and if the Court shall see fit, the Defence may be made by such Guardian in formâ pauperis.
7. That where the Defendant has been brought to the Bar of the Court for his Contempt in not answering, and refuses or neglects to answer, (not being Idiot, Lunatic, or of unsound Mind,) the Court may, upon Motion or Petition, of which due Notice shall be given personally to the Defendant, authorize the Plaintiff to amend his Bill, without such Amendment operating as a Discharge of the Contempt, or rendering it necessary to proceed with the Process of Contempt de novo; but after such Amendment the Plaintiff may proceed to take the amended Bill pro Confesso, in the same Manner as if it had not been amended: Provided nevertheless, that if the Defendant shall be desirous to answer such amended Bill, the Court shall allow him such Time as shall seem just for that Purpose; but if he shall not within the Time allowed by the Court put in a sufficient Answer to the amended Bill, the Process for taking the Bill pro Confesso may be resumed and carried on.
8. That in every Case where the Defendant has been brought to the Bar of the Court to answer his Contempt for not answering, and shall refuse or neglect to answer within the next Twenty-one Days, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty, with the Leave of the Court, upon Ten Days previous Notice to the Defendant, after the Expiration of such Twenty-one Days, unless good Cause be shown to the contrary, instead of proceeding to have the Bill taken pro Confesso, to put in such an Answer to the Bill as herein-after is mentioned, in the Name of the Defendant, without Oath or Signature, and thereupon the Suit shall proceed in the same Manner as if such Answer were really the Answer of the Defendant, with which the Plaintiff was satisfied, and the Costs of the Contempt and of putting in such Answer may be provided for in like Manner as if the Defendant himself had put in such Answer; and such Answer, besides the formal Parts thereof, shall be to the following Effect; that the Defendant leaves the Plaintiff to make such Proofs of the several Matters in the Bill alleged as he shall be able or be advised, and submits his Interests to the Court.
9. That in any Case where, upon the Application of the Plaintiff, the Court shall be satisfied that Justice cannot be done to the Plaintiff without an Answer to the Bill or to the Interrogatories from the Defendant himself, it shall be lawful for the Court to order the Defendant to remain in Custody until Answer or further Order, but without Prejudice to the Plaintiff's availing himself of any of the Provisions of this Act.
10. That where the Defendant is in Contempt for not appearing or not answering, and in actual Custody under Process for such Contempt, or being already in Custody shall be detained by

by an Attachment for such Contempt, and shall not, where the Contempt is for not appearing, enter an Appearance within Twenty-one Days after he is lodged in Gaol or Prison, or the Attachment is lodged against him (he being already in Prison), as the Case may be, or, where the Contempt is for not answering, put in an Answer within Two Calendar Months after he is lodged in Gaol or Prison, or the Attachment is lodged against him, he being already in Prison, the Plaintiff shall (as the Case may be), within Fourteen Days after the Period computed from the Expiration of such Twenty-one Days within which he may by the Provisions of this Act be able to enter such Appearance, cause an Appearance to be entered for the Defendant under the Powers of this Act, and shall at the Expiration of such Two Calendar Months proceed to take the Bill pro Confesso, and shall accordingly obtain an Order for taking the same pro Confesso within Six Weeks after the Period computed from the Expiration of such Two Calendar Months within which he may be able to take the same pro Confesso; or in default of so doing in either of such Cases the Defendant shall, upon Application to the Court, be entitled to be discharged out of Custody without paying any of the Costs of the Contempt, unless the Court shall, under the Power herein-before contained, see good Cause to remand and detain the Defendant in Custody; and this Rule shall apply to every Defendant in Custody before and at the Time of the passing of this Act who shall not have entered his Appearance, and for whom an Appearance shall not have been entered, or shall not have answered the Bill, and the Bill shall not have been taken pro Confesso, but the Twenty-one Days and Two Calendar Months respectively to be reckoned from the first Day of next Term, and the other Periods to be altered accordingly in Computation; but nothing in this Act shall prevent any Plaintiff from proceeding to take his Bill pro Confesso, according to the Practice existing before the passing of this Act, without Prejudice to the Right of the Defendant to be discharged if not effected within the Time herein-before limited.

11. That where a Defendant is in Custody for a Contempt in not answering, and shall be able to put in his Answer without taking an Office Copy of the Bill, he shall not be compellable to take any such Copy, but the proper Officer may (if he think the Defendant is of sufficient Ability to pay for an Office Copy, and an Office Copy ought by the Practice of the Court to be taken out,) require him, before the Answer is filed, to make an Affidavit denying his Ability in consequence of Poverty to pay for an Office Copy of the Bill.
12. That when any Person shall have been directed by any Decree or Order to execute any Deed or other Instrument, or make a Surrender or Transfer, and shall have refused or neglected to execute such Deed or Instrument, or to make such Surrender or Transfer, and shall have been committed to Prison under Process for such Contempt, or, being confined in Prison for any other Cause, shall have been charged with or detained under Process for such Contempt, and shall remain in such Prison, and the Court shall, under the Powers of an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, have ordered one of the Masters to execute any Deed or other Instrument, Surrender or Transfer, for and in the Name of such Person, in every such Case, within Ten Days after the Execution or making of any such Deed or other Instrument, or Surrender or Transfer, Notice thereof shall be given by the adverse Solicitor to the Party in whose Name the same is executed or made; and such Party, as soon as the Deed or other Instrument, or Surrender or Transfer, shall be executed, made, levied, or suffered, shall be considered as having cleared his Contempt, except as far as regards the Payment of the Costs of the Contempt, and shall be entitled to be discharged therefrom under any of the Provisions of this Act applicable to his Case; and the Court shall make such Order as shall be just touching the Payment of the Costs of or attending any such Deed, Surrender, Instrument, or Transfer.

13. That where a Person shall be committed for a Contempt in not delivering to any Person or Persons, or depositing in Court or elsewhere, as by any Order may be directed, Books, Papers, or any other Articles or Things, any Sequestrator or Sequestrators appointed under any Commission of Sequestration shall have the same Power to seize and take such Books, Papers, Writings, or other Articles or Things, being in the Custody or Power of the Person against whom the Sequestration issues, as they would have over his own Property, and thereupon such Articles or Things so seized and taken shall be dealt with by the Court as shall be just; and after such Seizure it shall be lawful for the Court, upon the Application of the Prisoner, or of any other Person in the Cause or Matter, or upon any Report to be made in pursuance of this Act, to make such Order for the Discharge of the Prisoner, upon such Terms, and, if it shall see fit, making any Costs to be Costs in the Cause, as to the Court shall seem proper.
14. That in all Cases of Contempt, other than and besides those already provided for, where any Person or Persons is or are or shall at any Time hereafter be in Prison under or by reason of any Commitment or Attachment, the Court may, upon any such Application as last aforesaid, or upon any such Report as aforesaid, make such Order for the Discharge of the Prisoner from the Contempt, upon any such Terms, and making, if the Court shall see fit, any Costs to be Costs in the Cause, as to the Court shall seem proper, or except as to the Costs, for which Costs the Prisoner shall remain in Custody, but entitled to the Provisions herein-after contained if he be insolvent.
15. That wherever the Court shall, upon any such Report as aforesaid, or upon Investigation of the Case of a Prisoner by the Court itself, be of opinion that the Purposes of Justice will not be answered by his remaining any longer in Custody, or where it shall appear upon any such Report as aforesaid that any Person committed for a Contempt shall be entitled to his Discharge upon applying to the Court, but shall omit to make such Application, the Court may, either with his Assent or compulsorily, discharge such Person from the Contempt and from Custody, and pay the Costs of the Contempt out of any Funds belonging to him over which the Court may have Power, or make them Costs in the Cause as against him, or may discharge him from the Contempt, but leave him in Custody for the Costs, which may be cleared, if he be insolvent, under the Provisions herein-after contained in that Behalf.

16. That where any Party obstinately retains Possession of Lands or other Real Property after a Writ of Execution of a Decree or an Order for Delivery of Possession has been duly served, and Demand of Possession made, and upon an Affidavit of such Service of the Writ of Execution, and of such Demand made thereunder, and a Refusal to comply therewith on the Part of the Person against whom the Writ issued, the Party issuing it shall be at liberty, upon an Affidavit of Service of the Writ of Execution, and Demand of Possession, and Refusal, to obtain the usual Order of Course for the Writ of Assistance to issue, and that the intermediate Writs of Attachment and Injunction, further commanding the Party to deliver Possession, or any other Writ, shall be unnecessary.
17. That in order to relieve Persons in Prisons from the Expence of taking Affidavits or Answers, the Lord High Chancellor do, by One or more Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal, upon or in respect of which no Fee shall be payable, nominate and appoint the Marshal, Keeper, or other Chief Officer of every Prison within the City of Dublin, or within Two Miles thereof, and their Deputies, to be Masters Extraordinary of the High Court of Chancery, for the Purpose of taking and receiving such Affidavits and Answers as any Person or Persons within any such Prison shall be willing or desirous to make, and for no other Purpose; and the Person so taking such Affidavit or Answer shall not in respect thereof be entitled to receive any Fee; and the Court of Exchequer shall in like Manner appoint such Persons as aforesaid a Commissioner or Commissioners of the said Court for the Purposes aforesaid, and no others, and without the Right to any Fee; and in every Case of an Answer being sworn in Prison a Clerk of the Deputy Keeper of the Rolls or of the Filazer of the Exchequer (as the Case may require) shall attend to take and carry back to and from the Prison the Answer, and shall in respect thereof be entitled to

And be it further enacted, That if any Master to whom any Apprentice mentioned in this Act shall be bound or assigned shall neglect to cause the Indenture or the Assignment thereof (as the Case may be) to be registered as required by this Act, or shall, after the Ship shall have cleared Outwards on the Voyage upon which such Ship may be bound, suffer his Apprentice to quit his Service (not entering into that of His Majesty), except in case of Death, Desertion, Sickness, or other unavoidable Cause, to be certified in the Log Book of the Ship, every such Master shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That any Two or more Justices of the Peace residing at or near to any Port at which any Ship as aforesaid, having on board thereof any Sea Apprentice, shall at any Time arrive, shall have full Power and Authority to inquire into and examine, hear and determine, all Claims of Apprentices upon their Masters under their Indentures, and all Complaints of hard or ill Usage exercised by their respective Masters towards any such their Apprentices, or of Misbehaviour on the Part of any such Apprentice, and to make such Orders therein as they are empowered by Law to do in other Cases between Masters and Apprentices.

Consent

Consent to his Apprentices remaining in His Majesty's Service during the Residue of the Term of his Apprenticeship, shall, upon the Production of his Indenture, be entitled, at the Time of paying off the Ship, to receive to his own Use any Balance of Wages that may be then due and payable to any such Apprentice up to the Period of the Expiration of his Indenture.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for the Appointment of convenient Places for the holding of Assizes in Ireland. [21st August 1835.]

‘ WHEREAS by a Statute made in the Sixth Year of the 6 Ric. 2. c. 5.
‘ Reign of King Richard the Second it was ordained, that ‘ the Justices assigned to take Assizes and deliver the Gaols should ‘ hold their Sessions in the principal and chief Towns of every of ‘ the Counties where the Shire Courts of the same Counties should ‘ be holden: And whereas by a Statute made in the Eleventh Year 11 Ric. 2. c. 11.
‘ of the same Reign, reciting so much of the said Statute of the ‘ Sixth Year as is herein-before recited, and stating that the said ‘ Statute was in part prejudicial and grievous to the People of divers ‘ Counties in England, it was provided that the Chancellor of ‘ England for the Time being should have Power thereof to make ‘ and provide Remedy, by Advice of the Justices, from Time to ‘ Time when Need should be, notwithstanding the said Statute:
‘ And whereas the Places at which the Assizes are now held in ‘ various Counties of Ireland are inconvenient to the Inhabitants ‘ thereof, and it would conduce to the more cheap, speedy, and ‘ effectual Administration of Justice to appoint other Places instead ‘ thereof for the holding of Assizes; but Doubts may be entertained ‘ whether that Object can be fully effected by virtue of the Statutes ‘ herein-before referred to:’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of each of the said Statutes as relates or may be construed to relate to holding Assizes or Sessions in Ireland shall be and the same is hereby repealed. Recited Statutes in part repealed.

II. And be it declared and enacted, That the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, shall have Power from Time to Time to order and direct at what Place or Places in any County in Ireland the Assizes and Sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery, and other Commissions for the Dispatch of Civil and Criminal Business, shall be holden, and to order and direct such Assizes and Sessions for the Dispatch of Criminal and Civil Business to be holden at more than One Place in the same County, and to order and direct the Assizes and Sessions under such Commissions Lord Lieuten-nant, &c. in Council may direct at what Places Assizes and Sessions shall be held, and that they may be holden in more than the County;

as also Special

Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and the Privy Council there, to make any Order for changing the Place for holding the Assizes in any County, or for dividing any County, for the Purposes of this Act, unless a Memorial shall have been presented to him or them by a Majority of the Grand Jury of the Assizes of such County, praying that such Change or Division may be made.

Power to divide Counties for the Purpose of holding Assizes in different Divisions of the same County.

IV. And be it enacted, That in case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, shall think fit to order and direct that the Assizes or any such Special Commissions shall be holden at more than One Place in any One County, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, by and with the Advice aforesaid, to divide any such County for the Purposes of this Act, and to make Rules and Regulations touching the Venue in all Cases, Civil and Criminal, then pending or thereafter to be pending and to be tried within any Division of such County so to be made as aforesaid; and touching the Liability and Attendance of Jurors, whether Grand Jurors, Special Jurors, or Common Jurors, at the Assizes and Sessions as aforesaid, or at any Sessions under any Special Commissions to be holden within any such Division; and touching the Use of any House of Correction or Prison as a Common Gaol, and the Government and Keeping thereof; and touching the Alterations of any Commissions, Writs, Precepts, or other Proceedings whatsoever for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act; and touching any other Matters that may be requisite for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act; and all such Rules and Regulations shall be of the like Force and Effect as if the same had been made by the Authority of Parliament, and shall be notified in the Dublin Gazette, or in such other Manner as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, shall think fit to direct.

‘ to certain Offices and Employments, it is enacted that every Person ‘ who should thereafter be placed, elected, or chosen in or to the ‘ Office of Mayor, Alderman, Recorder, Bailiff, Town Clerk, or ‘ Place, Trust, or Employment relating to the Government of any ‘ City, Corporation, Borough, or Cinque Port within England and ‘ Wales, or the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, should, within One ‘ Calendar Month next before or upon his Admission into any of

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for investing in Government Securities a Portion of the Cash lying unemployed in the Bank of England belonging to Bankrupts Estates, and applying the Interest thereon in discharge of the Expences of the Court of Bankruptcy, and for the Relief of the Suitors in the said Court; and for removing Doubts as to the Extent of the Powers of the Court of Review and of the Subdivision Courts. [21st August 1835.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First and Second Years ‘ of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to ‘ establish a Court in Bankruptcy, it was enacted, that it should be ‘ lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to establish a ‘ Court of Judicature, which should be called “The Court of Bank‘ ruptcy,” and to appoint Judges, Commissioners, and other Officers ‘ of the said Court; and that it should be lawful for the Lord Chan‘ cellor to choose Official Assignees to act in all Bankruptcies pro‘ secuted in the said Court, and to collect the Effects of Bankrupts, ‘ and to pay the Proceeds thereof into the Bank of England to the ‘ Credit of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery ‘ subject to the Order of the Lord High Chancellor, or the said ‘ Court or any Judge thereof, as therein mentioned; and it was ‘ further enacted, that certain Fees and Sums of Money specified in

1 & 2 W. 4. c. 56.

‘ the said Act should be received by the Lord Chancellor’s Secre‘ tary of Bankrupts, and paid by him into the Bank of England, to ‘ the Credit of the said Accountant General, to an Account to be ‘ intituled “ The Secretary of Bankrupts Account,” and that there ‘ should be paid out of the Monies standing to that Account certain ‘ yearly Sums specified in the said Act as and for Salaries to the ‘ Judges and other Officers of the said Court for the Time being;
 ‘ and it was further enacted by the said Act, that certain Annuities, ‘ the Amount thereof to be ascertained and certified as in the said ‘ Act is mentioned, should be respectively paid to the Patentee ‘ for the Execution of the Laws and Statutes concerning Bank‘ rupts, to certain Persons then acting as Commissioners of Bank‘ rupt in London, and to certain Officers of the Lord Chancellor ‘ and of the High Court of Chancery mentioned in the said Act, in ‘ lieu of and as Compensation for certain Fees and Emoluments ‘ accustomed to be received by them, and which would by the Pro‘ visions of the said Act be wholly discontinued and abolished, out ‘ of the Monies and Securities standing to an Account to be opened ‘ by the said Accountant General, to be intituled “ The Secretary ‘ of Bankrupts Compensation Account;” and that certain Fees and ‘ Sums of Money specified by the said Act should be paid by the ‘ said Official Assignees into the Bank of England to the Credit of ‘ the said Accountant General, to be carried to the said Accounts ‘ respectively: And whereas His Majesty did, by virtue and in ‘ pursuance of the said Act, establish the said Court of Bankruptcy, ‘ and did appoint Judges and Commissioners and Registrars and ‘ Deputy Registrars of the said Court: And whereas Official Assign‘ nees have been chosen by the Lord Chancellor to act in Bank‘ ruptcies as aforesaid: And whereas the Amount of certain ‘ Annuities have been duly ascertained and certified in pursuance ‘ of the said Act, to be due and payable to the Persons therein ‘ mentioned, in lieu of the Fees and Emoluments aforesaid: And ‘ whereas an Account has been opened in the Bank of England by ‘ the said Accountant General, intituled “ The Secretary of Bank‘ rupts Account,” and another Account has been opened in the ‘ Bank of England by the said Accountant General, intituled “ The ‘ Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account”: And whereas
 ‘ the said Official Assignees have paid into the Bank of England in ‘ the Name of the said Accountant General divers large Sums of ‘ Money, which have been placed to the Credit of the several Bank‘ rupts Estates: And whereas there now is and has been for a long ‘ Time a very large Sum of Money belonging to Bankrupts Estates, ‘ or to Suitors in Matters of Bankruptcy, standing in the Name of ‘ the said Accountant General, which lies dead and unemployed
 ‘ in the said Bank of England: And whereas it was necessary ‘ for the said Accountant General to appoint certain Persons to ‘ act as Clerks in the Performance and Execution of the Duties ‘ imposed upon him by the said Act; but no Provision is made by ‘ the said Act for the Salaries of the said Clerks and the other ‘ Expences necessarily incident to the Performance of the said ‘ Duties, other than out of certain Fees directed to be paid to the ‘ Chief Registrar of the said Court: And whereas the Business
 ‘ arising from the Duties imposed upon the said Accountant Ge‘ neral by the said Act is gradually increasing, and the present
 ‘ Establishment

‘ Establishment of Clerks is likely to become inadequate to transact
 ‘ the same with that Accuracy and Despatch which is necessary for ‘ the Public Service: And whereas the Payment of the Fees au‘ thorized by the said Act, or a Part thereof, will become unnecessary,
 ‘ and the same may be discontinued if another Fund is provided for ‘ the Payments now made out of the said Fees by the Authority ‘ of the said Act:’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the Cash belonging to the Estates of Bankrupts, or to Suitors in Matters of Bankruptcy, that now lies or shall hereafter lie dead and uninvested on Securities in the Bank of England, in the Name of the said Accountant General, or of the Accountant in Bankruptcy hereafter mentioned, any Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds shall and may, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the Lord High Chancellor to be made for that Purpose, from Time to Time be placed out in One entire Sum or in Parcels, in the Name of the said Accountant General or of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy, after the Appointment of the said last-mentioned Accountant, on such Government or Parliamentary Securities as in and by such Order or Orders shall be directed; and such Securities shall be carried to an Account to be intituled “The Bankruptcy Fund Account,” subject to such Rules and Orders as the Lord High Chancellor shall think fit to prescribe for the Purposes herein mentioned.

 Money in the Bank belonging to Bankrupts
 Estates to be carried to an Account to be called “The Bankruptcy
 Fund Account.”

II. ‘ And whereas the Monies and Securities standing to the ‘ Credit of the said Account, intituled “The Secretary of Bank‘ rupts Compensation Account,” were in the Month of August
 ‘ One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four found inadequate to ‘ meet the several Payments then due and payable thereout, and the ‘ Sum of Two thousand four hundred Pounds was, on Application
 ‘ to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, then ‘ advanced and paid by them, through the Lord Chancellor’s Secre‘ tary of Bankrupts, into the Bank of England to the Credit of the ‘ said Account, for the Purpose of enabling the several Payments ‘ then due to be paid and discharged to the Parties entitled thereto;
 ‘ but no Power or Authority exists under the Provisions of the said
 ‘ first-recited Act, or otherwise, for the Repayment of such Sum out
 ‘ of the Monies and Securities standing to the Credit of the said ‘ Account;’ be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor to order that the said Sum of Two thousand four hundred Pounds so advanced and paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury to the Credit of the said Account, intituled “The Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account,” shall be repaid out of the Monies and Securities which now are or hereafter may be standing to the Credit of such Account, and the same shall be repayable and repaid accordingly, and until so repaid be considered a Charge on such Account; any thing in the said first-recited or other Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sum advanced to Credit of

 repaid by Order of Lord Chancellor.

III. ‘ And whereas from the increased Amount of the Funds ‘ belonging to Bankrupts Estates, and the large Number of Accounts
 ‘ to which such Funds belong, and which are daily augmenting, it ‘ appears that such Funds and such Accounts cannot be properly

Lord Chancellor to ap-

 ' whereas an Account has been opened in the Bank of England by
 ' the said Accountant General, intituled "The Secretary of Bank-
 ' rupts Account," and another Account has been opened in the
 ' Bank of England by the said Accountant General, intituled "The
 ' Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account": And whereas
 ' the said Official Assignees have paid into the Bank of England in
 ' the Name of the said Accountant General divers large Sums of
 ' Money, which have been placed to the Credit of the several Bank-
 ' rupts Estates: And whereas there now is and has been for a long
 ' Time a very large Sum of Money belonging to Bankrupts Estates,
 ' or to Suitors in Matters of Bankruptcy, standing in the Name of
 ' the said Accountant General, which lies dead and unemployed
 ' in the said Bank of England: And whereas it was necessary
 ' for the said Accountant General to appoint certain Persons to
 ' act as Clerks in the Performance and Execution of the Duties
 ' imposed upon him by the said Act; but no Provision is made by
 ' the said Act for the Salaries of the said Clerks and the other
 ' Expences necessarily incident to the Performance of the said
 ' Duties, other than out of certain Fees directed to be paid to the
 ' Chief Registrar of the said Court: And whereas the Business
 ' arising from the Duties imposed upon the said Accountant Ge-
 ' neral by the said Act is gradually increasing, and the present
 ' Establishment

‘ Establishment of Clerks is likely to become inadequate to transact
 ‘ the same with that Accuracy and Despatch which is necessary for ‘ the Public Service: And whereas the Payment of the Fees au‘ thorized by the said Act, or a Part thereof, will become unnecessary,
 ‘ and the same may be discontinued if another Fund is provided for ‘ the Payments now made out of the said Fees by the Authority ‘ of the said Act:’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most
 Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Par-
 the Cash belonging to the Estates of Bankrupts, or to Suitors in Matters of Bankruptcy, that now lies or shall hereafter lie dead and
 uninvested on Securities in the Bank of England, in the Name of the
 said Accountant General, or of the Accountant in Bankruptcy
 hereafter mentioned, any Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole
 the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds shall and may, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the Lord High Chancellor to be made for that Purpose, from Time to Time be placed out in One entire Sum or in Parcels, in the Name of the said Accountant General or of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy, after the Appointment of the said last-mentioned Accountant, on such Government
 or Parliamentary Securities as in and by such Order or Orders shall be directed; and such Securities shall be carried to an Account to be intituled “The Bankruptcy Fund Account,” subject to such
 prescribe for the Purposes herein mentioned.

 Bank belonging
 to Bankrupts
 Estates to be carried to an Account to be

II. ‘ And whereas the Monies and Securities standing to the ‘ Credit of the said Account, intituled “The Secretary of Bank‘ rupts Compensation Account,” were in the Month of August
 ‘ One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four found inadequate to ‘ meet the several Payments then due and payable thereout, and the ‘ Sum of Two thousand four hundred Pounds was, on Application
 ‘ to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, then
 ‘ advanced and paid by them, through the Lord Chancellor’s Secre‘ tary of Bankrupts, into the Bank of England to the Credit of the ‘ said Account, for the Purpose of enabling the several Payments
 ‘ then due to be paid and discharged to the Parties entitled thereto;
 ‘ but no Power or Authority exists under the Provisions of the said
 ‘ first-recited Act, or otherwise, for the Repayment of such Sum out
 ‘ of the Monies and Securities standing to the Credit of the said ‘ Account;’ be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor to order that the said Sum of Two thousand
 four hundred Pounds so advanced and paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury to the Credit of the said Account,
 intituled “The Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account,”
 shall be repaid out of the Monies and Securities which now are or
 shall be repayable and repaid accordingly, and until so repaid be considered a Charge on such Account; any thing in the said first-recited

 ‘ to which such Funds belong, and which are daily augmenting, it ‘ appears that such Funds and such Accounts cannot be properly

‘ protected and managed by the said Accountant General of the ‘ High Court of Chancery, and it is expedient therefore that an ‘ Officer experienced in and conversant with the Mode of keeping ‘ Accounts, to be called “ The Accountant in Bankruptcy,” shall ‘ be forthwith appointed to superintend and control the Care and ‘ Management of the said Funds;’ be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor for the Time being to nominate from Time to Time as Occasion may require some fit and proper Person to be the Accountant in Bankruptcy; which Officer so to be appointed shall hold his Office during good Behaviour, notwithstanding the Demise of His Majesty, or any of His Heirs or Successors: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor by any Order to remove any such Officer for some sufficient Reason to be in such Order expressed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That at any Time after the Appointment of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, by any general or other Order or Orders, to direct that the Whole or any Part of the Cash, Funds, or Securities belonging to Bankrupts Estates or to Suitors in Matters of Bankruptcy, and then standing in the Name or to the Credit of the said Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery at the Bank of England, to the Credit of any Bankrupt’s Estate, or of any Assignee or Assignees of such Estate, or in the Matter of any Bankruptcy, be forthwith paid and transferred into the Name and to the Credit of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy; and all such Payments or Transfers as now are or heretofore have been made into the Bank in the Name or to the Credit of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery in Matters of Bankruptcy shall, from and after the Appointment of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy, be made in the Name or to Credit of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy; and all Cash, Funds, or Securities to be so paid or transferred as aforesaid shall be subject to such and the like Provisions, Regulations, Rules, and Orders as the same are or would have been subject to if paid or transferred in the Name or to the Credit of the said Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, except as the same may be altered by this Act, or any Rule or Order to be made by the Lord High Chancellor in respect of the same.

And to the end that no Suitor or Suitors of the said Court of Bankruptcy may be delayed in payment of any Money due to him, her, or them, but that every one may receive his or her full Demand whensoever he or she shall apply for the same, in the most easy and expeditious Way; be it enacted, That all the Money and Cash now deposited in the Bank, or that shall at any Time hereafter be paid into or deposited in the Bank, on the Account of Bankrupts Estates or in any Matter of Bankruptcy, shall be and be accounted and taken to be one common and general Cash, and shall be promiscuously issued and issuable for the answering, paying, and clearing the Debts and Demands thereon.

 ' enumerated in the said Schedule any other Offices which then
 ' existed or might thereafter be created or established, and to place
 ' the same and the Officers and Persons employed therein under ' the Provisions of that Act; and a Power was thereby given to the ' Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in case it should appear ' to them that any special Circumstances afforded to any Officer or ' Clerk in the several Offices or Departments mentioned in the ' Schedule to the Act, or in the Addition authorized to be made
 ' thereto, a just Claim to an Amount of Superannuation Allowance
 ' not authorized by the Act, or exceeding the Amount therein spe-

‘ the other Side in another Parish, whereby great Inconveniences ‘ often arise in repairing the same ;’ be it enacted, That the Justices at a Special Sessions for the Highways, on Complaint of any Surveyor of any Parish, (stating in Writing, and on a Plan thereunto annexed, that there is such a Highway, one Side whereof ought to be repaired by one Parish, and the other Side by another, and particularly describing the same by Metes, Bounds, and Admeasurement thereof,) may issue their Summons, with a Copy of such Writing and Plan thereunto annexed, to the Surveyor of such other Parish, to appear before them on a Day mentioned in such Summons; and if the Parties appear such Justices may then proceed finally to decide the Matter, in manner herein mentioned, in case all the Parties shall consent thereto; but in case the Surveyor summoned shall not appear on such first Summons, or appearing shall require further Time, such Justices shall adjourn the further Consideration of the Matter for any further Time, not more than Twenty-one Days nor less than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Adjournment, of which the Surveyor not appearing, or appearing shall require further Time, shall have Notice, on which Day the said Justices shall proceed to hear the Parties and their Witnesses, and, whether the Party summoned does or does not appear, shall proceed to examine and finally determine the Matter in form following; (that is to say,) that it shall and may be lawful for such Justices and they are hereby required to divide the whole of such Common Highway, by a transverse Line crossing such Highway, into equal Parts, or into such unequal Parts and Proportions as, in consideration of the Soil Waters, Floods, and Inequality of such Highway, or any other Circumstances attending the same, they in their Discretion shall think just and right, and to declare, adjudge, and order that the whole of such Highway on both Sides thereof, in any of such Parts, shall be maintained and repaired by one of such Parishes, and that the whole thereof on both Sides, in the other of such Parts, shall be maintained and repaired by the other of such Parishes, and shall cause such their Order, and a Plan of such Highway, and the Allotment thereof as before mentioned, to be fairly delineated on Paper or Parchment, and filed with the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which such Highway shall happen to lie, and shall also cause such Posts, Stones, or other Boundaries to be placed and set up in such Highway as in their Judgment shall be necessary for ascertaining the Division and Allotment thereof: Provided nevertheless, that in the Case of any such last-mentioned Highway, the Repair of any Part of which belongs to any Body Politic or Corporate, or to any Person, by the Reason of Tenure of any Lands, or otherwise howsoever, the same Proceedings may be adopted, but the said Body Politic or Corporate, or Person, or some one on their

CAP. LVI.

An Act to regulate the Admeasurement of the Tonnage and Burthen of the Merchant Shipping of the United Kingdom. [9th September 1835.]

526 Vc 47. 39
repealed by 849 Vc 84.

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 55.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the registering of British Vessels, certain Rules are established for ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships as well on shore as afloat, and of Vessels propelled by Steam; and the Account of such Tonnage, whenever the same shall have been ascertained according to the Rules therein prescribed (except in the Case of Ships admeasured afloat); it is thereby enacted shall be deemed the Tonnage of such Ships, and shall be repeated in every subsequent Registry of such Ships, unless any Alteration shall have been made in their Form and Burthen, or unless it be discovered that the Tonnage had been erroneously computed: And whereas it is considered that the Capacity of a Ship is the fairest Standard by which to regulate its Tonnage, that internal Measurements will afford the most accurate and convenient Method of ascertaining that Capacity, and that the Adoption of such a Mode of Admeasurement will tend to the Interests of the Ship Builder and the Owner, as well as to the proper Collection of the Dues which by Law are payable on Tonnage; and it is expedient to alter and amend the Law in this respect: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act so much of the said recited Act as establishes Rules for ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships shall be and the same is hereby repealed so far as respects the Merchant Shipping of the United Kingdom to be thereafter registered.

Rules established by recited Act for ascertaining Tonnage repealed.

The Rule by which Tonnage of Vessels is to be ascertained.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the Tonnage of every Ship or Vessel required by Law to be registered shall, previous to her being registered, be measured and ascertained while her Hold is clear, and according to the following Rule; (that is to say,) Divide the Length of the Upper Deck between the Afterpart of the Stem and the Forepart of the Stern-post into Six equal Parts. Depths: At the foremost, the middle, and the aftermost of those Points of Division, measure in Feet and Decimal Parts of a Foot the Depths from the under Side of the Upper Deck to the Ceiling at the Limber Strake. In the Case of a Break in the Upper Deck, the Depths are to be measured from a Line stretched in a Continuation of the Deck. Breadths: Divide each of those Three Depths into Five equal Parts, and measure sure the Inside Breadths at the following Points; videlicet, at One Fifth and at Four Fifths from the Upper Deck of the foremost and aftermost Depths, and at Two Fifths and Four Fifths from the Upper Deck of the midship Depth. Length: At Half the midship Depth measure the Length of the Vessel from the Afterpart of the Stem to the Forepart of the Stern-post; then to Twice the midship Depth add the foremost and the aftermost Depths for the Sum of the Depths; add together the upper and lower Breadths at the foremost Division, Three Times the upper Breadth, and the lower Breadth at the midship Division, and the upper and Twice the lower Breadth at the after Division, for the Sum of the Breadths; then multiply the Sum of the Depths by the Sum of the Breadths, and this Product by the Length, and divide the final Product by Three thousand five hundred, which will give the Number of Tons for Register. If the Vessel have a Poop or Half Deck, or a Break in the Upper Deck, measure the Inside Mean Length, Breadth, and Height of such Part thereof as may be included within the Bulk-head; multiply these Three Measurements together, and dividing the Product by 92·4, the Quotient will be the Number of Tons to be added to the Result as above found. In order to ascertain the Tonnage of open Vessels, the Depths are to be measured from the upper Edge of the upper Strake.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Tonnage or Burthen of every Ship belonging to the United Kingdom, ascertained in the Manner herein-before directed, shall, in respect of any such Ship which shall be registered after the Commencement of this Act (except as herein-after excepted), be inserted in the Certificate of the Registry thereof, and be taken and deemed to be the Tonnage or Burthen thereof for all the Purposes of the said recited Act.

Tonnage, when ascertained, to be entered on Register.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in each of the several Rules herein-before prescribed, when applied for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel propelled by Steam, the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be deducted from the Total Tonnage of the Vessel as determined by either of the Rules aforesaid, and the Remainder shall be deemed the true Register Tonnage of the said Ship or Vessel. The Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be determined in the following Manner; that is to say, measure the Inside Length of the Engine Room in Feet and Decimal Parts of a Foot from the foremost to the aftermost Bulk-head, then multiply the said Length by the Depth of the Ship or Vessel at the midship Division as aforesaid, and the Product by the Inside Breadth at the same Division at Two Fifths of the Depth from the Deck taken as aforesaid, and divide the last Product by 92·4, and the Quotient shall be deemed the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room.

Mode of ascertaining Tonnage of Steam Vessels.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room and also the Length of the Engine Room shall be set forth in the Certificate of Registry as Part of the Description of the Ship or Vessel, and that any Alteration of such Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room or of such Length of the Engine Room, after Registry, shall be deemed to be an Alteration requiring Registry de novo within the Meaning of the said Act for the registering of Ships or Vessels.

Length and Cubical Contents of Engine Room to be set forth in Description of Steam Vessel.

VI. And

For ascertaining Tonnage of Vessels when laden.

VI. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of all such Ships, whether belonging to the United Kingdom or otherwise, as there shall be Occasion to measure while their Cargoes are on board, the following Rule shall be observed and is hereby established; (that is to say,) Measure, first, the Length on the Upper Deck between the Afterpart of the Stem and the Forepart of the Stern-post; secondly, the Inside Breadth on the Underside of the Upper Deck at the middle Point of the Length; and, thirdly, the Depth from the Underside of the Upper Deck down the Pump-well to the Skin; multiply these Three Dimensions together, and divide the Product by One hundred and thirty, and the Quotient will be the Amount of the Register Tonnage of such Ships.

Amount of Register Tonnage to be carved on Main Beam.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the true Amount of the Register Tonnage of every Merchant Ship or Vessel belonging to the United Kingdom, to be ascertained according to the Rule by this Act established in respect of such Ships, shall be deeply carved or cut in Figures of at least Three Inches in Length on the Main Beam of every such Ship or Vessel, prior to her being registered.

Not to alter
Vessels already registered.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to alter the present Measure of Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel which shall have been registered prior to the Commencement of this Act, unless in Cases where the Owners of any such Ships shall require to have their Tonnage established according to the Rule herein-before provided, or unless there shall be Occasion to have any such Ship admeasured again on account of any Alteration which shall have been made in the Form or Burthen of the same, in which Cases only such Ships shall be re-admeasured according to the said Rule, and their Tonnage registered accordingly.

Commencement of Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect upon and from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

Act may be altered this Session.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

 ‘ the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and ‘ thirty-four, with an additional Article thereto on the Eighth ‘ Day

‘ Day of December in the same Year, concluded between His ‘ Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and ‘ Ireland, His Majesty the King of the French, and His Majesty
 ‘ the King of Sardinia, and signed at Turin, whereby it was agreed ‘ as follows :

‘ ARTICLE I.—His Majesty the King of Sardinia accedes to ‘ the Conventions concluded and signed on the Thirtieth of ‘ November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and on ‘ the Twenty-second of March One thousand eight hundred ‘ and thirty-three, between His Majesty the King of the United ‘ Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His Majesty the ‘ King of the French, relating to the Suppression of the Slave ‘ Trade, as well as to their Annexes, excepting the Reservations ‘ and Modifications expressed in the Second, Third, and Fourth ‘ Articles herein-after given, which Articles shall be considered ‘ additional to the said Conventions and to their Annexes, and ‘ excepting the Differences which necessarily result from the ‘ Situation of His Sardinian Majesty as a Party acceding to the ‘ Conventions in question after their Conclusion; His Majesty the ‘ King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and ‘ His Majesty the King of the French having accepted the said ‘ Accession, all the Articles of these Two Conventions, and all ‘ the Conditions of their Annexes, shall in consequence be held ‘ to have been concluded and signed in the same Manner as ‘ the present Convention directly between His Majesty the King ‘ of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, His ‘ Majesty the King of the French, and His Majesty the King ‘ of Sardinia :

‘ Their said Majesties engage and promise reciprocally to ‘ fulfil faithfully, excepting the Reservations and Modifications ‘ hereby stipulated for, all the Clauses, Conditions, and Obligations ‘ which result therefrom; and in order to prevent any ‘ Uncertainty it has been agreed that the above-mentioned Conventions,

‘ Convention between His Majesty and the King of the French
 ‘ for the more effectual Suppression of the Traffic in Slaves, ‘ signed at Paris the Thirtieth Day of November One ‘ thousand eight hundred and thirty-one.

‘ The Courts of Great Britain and of France, being desirous ‘ of rendering more effectual the Means of Suppression which ‘ have hitherto been in force against the criminal Traffic known ‘ under the Name of the Slave Trade, they have deemed it ‘ expedient to negotiate and conclude a Convention for the Attainment ‘ of so salutary an Object, and they have to this End named as their ‘ Plenipotentiaries; (that is to say,) His Majesty the King of the ‘ United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the Right Honourable ‘ Viscount Granville, Peer of Parliament, Member of the Privy Council, ‘ Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, ‘ Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of ‘ France; and His Majesty the King of the French the Lieutenant ‘ General Count Horace Sebastiani, Grand Cross of the Order of the ‘ Legion of Honour, Member of the Chamber of Deputies of the ‘ Departments,

ments, and Minister and Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs; who, after having exchanged their full Powers, found to be in due Form, have signed the following Articles :

1°. Along the Western Coast of Africa, from Cape Verd to the Distance of Ten Degrees to the South of the Equator; that is to say, from the Tenth Degree of South Latitude to the Fifteenth Degree of North Latitude, and as far as the Thirtieth Degree of West Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Paris.

2°. All round the Isle of Madagascar to the Extent of Twenty Leagues from that Island.

3°. To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Cuba.

4°. To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Porto Rico.

5°. To the same Distance from the Coasts of Brazil.

It is however understood that a suspected Vessel descried and begun to be chased by the Cruizers whilst within the said Space of Twenty Leagues may be searched by them beyond those Limits, if, without having ever lost Sight of her, they should only succeed in coming up with her at a greater Distance from the Coast.

Article II. — The Right of searching Merchant Vessels of either of the Two Nations in the Waters herein-before mentioned shall be exercised only by Ships of War whose Commanders shall have the Rank of Captain or at least that of Lieutenant in the Navy.

Article V.—Instructions shall be drawn up and agreed upon in common by the Two Governments for the Cruizers of both Nations, which Cruizers shall afford to each other mutual Assistance in all Circumstances in which it may be useful that they should act in concert. The Ships of War authorized to exercise the reciprocal Right of Search shall be furnished with a special Authority from each of the Two Governments.

Article VI.—Whenever a Cruizer shall have chased and overtaken a Merchant Vessel as liable to Suspicion, the Commanding Officer, before he proceeds to the Search, shall exhibit to the Captain of the Merchant Vessel the special Orders

‘ Orders which confer upon him by Exception the Right to ‘ visit her ; and in case he shall ascertain the Ship’s Papers to ‘ be regular, and her Proceedings lawful, he shall certify upon ‘ the Log Book of the Vessel that the Search took place only ‘ in virtue of the said Orders ; these Formalities having ‘ been completed, the Vessel shall be at liberty to continue her ‘ Course.

‘ Article VII.—The Vessels captured for being engaged in ‘ the Slave Trade, or as being suspected of being fitted out for ‘ that infamous Traffic, shall, together with their Crews, be ‘ delivered over, without Delay, to the Jurisdiction of the ‘ Nation to which they shall belong ; it is furthermore distinctly ‘ understood, that they shall only be judged according to the ‘ Laws in force in their respective Countries.

‘ Article VIII.—In no Case shall the Right of mutual ‘ Search be exercised upon the Ships of War of either ‘ Nation.

‘ The Two Governments shall agree upon a particular ‘ Signal, with which those Cruizers only shall be furnished ‘ which are invested with this Right, and which Signal shall ‘ not be made known to any other Ship not employed upon ‘ this Service.

‘ Article IX.—The High Contracting Parties to the present ‘ Treaty agree to invite the other Maritime Powers to accede ‘ to it within as short a Period as possible.

‘ Article X.—The present Convention shall be ratified, and ‘ the Ratifications of it shall be exchanged within One Month, ‘ or sooner, if it be possible.

‘ In Faith of which the Plenipotentiaries have signed the ‘ present Convention, and have affixed thereto the Seal of ‘ their Arms.

 ‘ Traffic in Slaves, signed at Paris March Twenty-second ‘ One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

‘ His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great ‘ Britain and Ireland and His Majesty the King of the French ‘ having felt the Necessity of developing some of the Clauses ‘ contained in the Convention which was signed between Their ‘ Majesties on the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight ‘ hundred and thirty-one, relating to the Suppression of the ‘ Crime of Slave Trade, have named as their Plenipotentiaries ‘ for this Purpose ; (to wit,)

 ‘ Britain and Ireland the Right Honourable Granville Viscount ‘ Granville, Peer of the United Kingdom, Knight Grand Cross
 ‘ of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Member of the ‘ Privy Council of His Britannic Majesty, and His Ambassador ‘ Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of France ; and
 ‘ Achille

‘ Achille Victor Duc de Broglie, Peer of France, Knight of the ‘ Royal Order of the Legion of Honour, Minister and Secre‘ tary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs; who, after ‘ having exchanged their Powers, which have been found in good
‘ and due Form, have agreed on the following Articles :

‘ Article I.—Whenever a Merchant Vessel navigating under ‘ the Flag of one of the Two Nations shall have been detained ‘ by the Cruizers of the other duly authorized to that Effect, ‘ conformably to the Provisions of the Convention of the ‘ Thirtieth November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-‘ one, such Merchant Vessel, as also her Master, her Crew, ‘ her Cargo, and the Slaves who may be on board, shall be ‘ carried to such Places as shall have been appointed by the ‘ Contracting Parties respectively, in order that Proceedings ‘ may be there instituted respecting them agreeably to the ‘ Laws of each Country, and they shall be delivered over to ‘ the Authorities appointed for that Purpose by the respective ‘ Governments.

‘ When the Commander of the Cruiser shall not think pro‘ per to take upon himself the carrying in and delivering up the ‘ detained Vessel he shall not entrust that Duty to an Officer ‘ below the Rank of Lieutenant in the Navy.

‘ Article II.—The Cruizers of the Two Nations authorized ‘ to exercise the Right of Visit and Detention in execution of ‘ the Convention of the Thirtieth November One thousand ‘ eight hundred and thirty-one, shall, in all that relates to the ‘ Formalities of the Visit and of the Detention, as well as to ‘ the Measures to be taken for delivering up Vessels suspected ‘ of being engaged in the Slave Trade to the respective Juris‘ dictions, conform strictly to the Instructions annexed to the ‘ present Convention, and which shall be considered as an in‘ tegral Part thereof.

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves
‘ the Power of making in these Instructions, by common Con‘ sent, any Modifications which Circumstances might render ‘ necessary.

‘ Article III.—It is clearly understood that if the Com‘ mander of a Cruiser of one of the Two Nations should have ‘ Reason to suspect that a Merchant Vessel navigating under ‘ Convoy of or in Company with a Vessel of War of the other ‘ Nation has engaged in the Slave Trade, or has been fitted
‘ out for the said Trade, he is to make known his Suspicions ‘ to the Commander of the Convoy or Vessel of War, who shall ‘ proceed alone to visit the suspected Vessel; and in case the ‘ latter Commander should find that the Suspicion is well ‘ founded he shall cause the Vessel to be taken, together with ‘ her Master, her Crew, and the Cargo, and the Slaves who ‘ may be on board, into a Port of his own Nation, in order ‘ that Proceedings may be instituted with regard to them, ‘ agreeably to the respective Laws.

‘ Article IV.—As soon as any Merchant Vessel detained and ‘ sent before the Tribunals aforesaid shall arrive at one of the ‘ Ports respectively pointed out, the Commander of the Cruiser ‘ which shall have detained her, or the Officer appointed to ‘ bring

‘ bring her in, shall deliver to the Authorities appointed for ‘ that Purpose One Copy, signed by him, of all the Lists, De-

 ‘ annexed to the present Convention, and the said Authorities ‘ shall in consequence proceed to a Survey of the detained ‘ Vessel and her Cargo, and to an Inspection of her Crew, and ‘ of the Slaves who may be on board, after having previously ‘ given Notice of the Time of such Survey and Inspection to ‘ the Commander of the Cruizer, or to the Officer who shall ‘ have brought in the Vessel, in order that he, or some Person ‘ in his Behalf, may be present thereat.

‘ A Declaration (Procès verbal) of these Proceedings shall ‘ be drawn up in Duplicate, signed by the Persons who shall ‘ have acted therein or been present at the same, and one of ‘ the said Declarations shall be delivered to the Commander ‘ of the Cruizer, or to the Officer who shall have been appointed ‘ to bring in the detained Vessel.

‘ Article V.—The Vessels detained as before mentioned,
 ‘ their Masters, Crews, and Cargoes, shall be forthwith pro‘ ceeded against before the proper Tribunals in the respective ‘ Countries according to the established Forms; and if in conse‘ quence of such Proceedings the said Vessels shall be found to ‘ have been employed in the Slave Trade, or to have been fitted ‘ out for the Purposes thereof, the Master, the Crew, and the ‘ Accomplices, as well as the Ship and Cargo, shall be dealt ‘ with conformably to the respective Laws of the Two Countries.

‘ In case the said Vessels shall be confiscated a Portion of ‘ Proceeds arising from their Sale shall be paid into the Hands ‘ of the Government to which the Captor belongs, to be distri‘ buted among the Officers and Crew of the capturing Ship.

 ‘ Equipment, or on board of her; videlicet,

 ‘ of the Commander under whose Orders he is acting, and of ‘ the Cruizer to which he belongs, and the Object of his Visit, ‘ as herein-before recited. If it shall be ascertained by the ‘ Visit that the Ship’s Papers are regular, and her Proceedings ‘ lawful, the Officer shall certify upon the Log Book of the ‘ Vessel that the Visit took place only in virtue of the special ‘ Orders above mentioned, and the Vessel shall be permitted ‘ to continue her Course.

 ‘ forthwith cause a List to be made out in Duplicate of all the ‘ Papers found on board, and he shall sign this List and the ‘ Duplicate, adding to his Name his Rank in the Navy,
 ‘ and the Name of the Vessel under his Command. He shall
 ‘ in like Manner make out and sign in Duplicate a Declara-

 ‘ herein-after specified, in order that Proceedings may be ‘ instituted in regard to them conformably to the respective ‘ Laws of each Country, and he shall deliver the same to the ‘ competent Authorities, or to the Persons who shall have ‘ been specially appointed for that Purpose by the respective ‘ Governments.

‘ 4°. No Person whatever shall be taken out of the detained ‘ Vessel, nor shall any Part of her Cargo, nor of the Slaves

 ‘ be deemed necessary, either for the Preservation of their ‘ Lives, or from any other Consideration of Humanity, or ‘ for the Safety of the Persons who shall be charged with the ‘ Navigation of the Vessel after her Detention. In this Case ‘ the Commander of the Cruizer or the Officer appointed to ‘ bring in the detained Vessel shall make a Declaration of ‘ such Removal, in which he shall specify the Reasons for ‘ the same; and the Masters, Sailors, Passengers, or Slaves so ‘ removed shall be carried to the same Port as the Vessel and ‘ her Cargo, and they shall be received in the same Manner as ‘ the Vessel, agreeably to the Regulations herein-after set forth.

‘ 5°. All such French Vessels as shall be detained by the ‘ Cruizers of His Britannic Majesty on the African Station ‘ shall be carried and delivered up to the French Jurisdiction ‘ at Goree.

‘ All such French Vessels as shall be detained by the ‘ Attestation of their Truth on Oath and in Writing.

‘ 7°. If the Commander of a Cruizer of either of the High ‘ Contracting Parties who shall be duly furnished with the ‘ aforesaid special Instructions shall have Reason to suspect ‘ that a Merchant Vessel sailing under Convoy or in com‘ pany with a Ship of War of the other Party is engaged ‘ French, instead of being Sardinian, and if she had been ‘ detained by an English or by a French Cruizer.

‘ The present Additional Article shall have the same Force

 ‘ to the Master, who shall forward One of them to his own ‘ Government in support of his Claim for Costs and Damages.

 ‘ declaring that the only Object of such Visit is to ascertain ‘ whether the Vessel is engaged in the Slave Trade, or is fitted ‘ out for the Purposes of such Traffic. When the Visit is ‘ made by another Officer of the Cruizer than her Commander ‘ this Officer shall not be under the Rank of Lieutenant in the ‘ Navy, and in this Case such Officer shall exhibit to the Master ‘ shall likewise deliver to him a Certificate, signed by him, ‘ specifying the Rank which he holds in the Navy, the Name

 ‘ lawful, the Officer shall certify upon the Log Book of the ‘ Vessel that the Visit took place only in virtue of the special ‘ Orders above mentioned, and the Vessel shall be permitted

 ‘ Grounds for believing that the Vessel is engaged in the ‘ Slave Trade, or has been fitted out for that Traffic, and ‘ if he shall in consequence determine to detain her, and to ‘ have her delivered up to the respective Jurisdiction, he shall ‘ forthwith cause a List to be made out in Duplicate of all the ‘ Papers found on board, and he shall sign this List and the ‘ Duplicate, adding to his Name his Rank in the Navy,
 ‘ and the Name of the Vessel under his Command. He shall
 ‘ in like Manner make out and sign in Duplicate a Declara‘ tion stating the Place and Time of the Detention, the Name ‘ of the Vessel, that of her Master, and those of the Persons ‘ composing her Crew, and also the Number and Condition ‘ of the Slaves found on board. This Declaration shall ‘ further contain an exact Description of the State of the ‘ Vessel and her Cargo.

‘ 3°. The Commander of the Cruizer shall without Delay ‘ carry or send the detained Vessel, with her Master, Crew, ‘ Cargo, and the Slaves found on board, to one of the Ports ‘ herein-after specified, in order that Proceedings may be

‘ delivered over, without Delay, to the Jurisdiction of the ‘ Nation to which they shall belong; it is furthermore distinctly ‘ understood, that they shall only be judged according to the ‘ Laws in force in their respective Countries.

‘ Article VIII.—In no Case shall the Right of mutual ‘ Search be exercised upon the Ships of War of either Nation.

 ‘ of the French for the more effectual Suppression of the ‘ Traffic in Slaves, signed at Paris the Twenty-second ‘ Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty- ‘ three.

‘ His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Bri- ‘ tain and Ireland and His Majesty the King of the French having ‘ felt the Necessity of developing some of the Clauses contained in ‘ the Convention which was signed between Their Majesties on ‘ the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred ‘ and thirty-one, relating to the Suppression of the Crime of ‘ Slave Trade, have named as their Plenipotentiaries for this ‘ Purpose; to wit,

 ‘ Britain and Ireland the Right Honourable Granville Viscount
 ‘ Granville, Peer of the United Kingdom, Knight Grand Cross
 ‘ Privy Council of His Britannic Majesty, and His Ambassador ‘ Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of France; and
 ‘ His Majesty the King of the French Monsieur Charles Leonce
 ‘ Achille Victor Duc de Broglie, Peer of France, Knight of the ‘ Royal Order of the Legion of Honour, Minister and Secretary ‘ of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs; who, after ‘ having exchanged their Powers, which have been found in good
 ‘ and due Form, have agreed on the following Articles:

‘ Article I.—Whenever a Merchant Vessel navigating ‘ under the Flag of One of the Two Nations shall have been ‘ detained by the Cruizers of the other duly authorized to ‘ that Effect, conformably to the Provisions of the Conven‘ tion of the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight hun‘ dred and thirty-one, such Merchant Vessel, as also her ‘ Master, her Crew, her Cargo, and the Slaves who may be on ‘ board, shall be carried to such Places as shall have been ap‘ pointed by the Contracting Parties respectively, in order ‘ that Proceedings may be there instituted respecting them ‘ agreeably to the Law of each Country, and they shall be ‘ delivered over to the Authorities appointed for that Purpose ‘ by the respective Governments.

‘ When the Commander of the Cruizer shall not think ‘ proper to take upon himself the carrying in and delivering ‘ up the detained Vessel he shall not entrust that Duty to an ‘ Officer below the Rank of Lieutenant in the Navy.

‘ Article II.—The Cruizers of the Two Nations authorized
‘ to exercise the Right of Visit and Detention, in execution ‘ of the Convention of the Thirtieth of November One thou‘ sand eight hundred and thirty-one, shall, in all that relates ‘ to the Formalities of the Visit and of the Detention, as well ‘ as to the Measures to be taken for delivering up Vessels ‘ suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade to the re‘ spective Jurisdictions, conform strictly to the Instructions ‘ annexed to the present Convention, and which shall be con‘ sidered as an integral Part thereof.

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves
‘ the Power of making in these Instructions, by common ‘ Consent, any Modifications which Circumstances might ‘ render necessary.

‘ Article III.—It is clearly understood that if the Com‘ mander of a Cruizer of One of the Two Nations shall have ‘ Reason to suspect that a Merchant Vessel navigating under ‘ Convoy of or in company with a Vessel of War of the other ‘ Nation has engaged in the Slave Trade, or has been fitted
‘ out for the said Trade, he is to make known his Suspicions ‘ to the Commander of the Convoy or Vessel of War, who ‘ shall proceed alone to visit the suspected Vessel; and in ‘ case the latter Commander should find that the Suspicion ‘ is well founded, he shall cause the Vessel to be taken, ‘ together with her Master, her Crew, and her Cargo, and the ‘ Slaves who may be on board, into a Port of his own Nation, ‘ in order that Proceedings may be instituted with regard ‘ to them agreeably to the respective Laws.

‘ Article IV.—As soon as any Merchant Vessel detained ‘ and sent before the Tribunals aforesaid shall arrive at one ‘ of the Ports respectively pointed out, the Commander of ‘ the Cruizer which shall have detained her, or the Officer ‘ appointed to bring her in, shall deliver to the Authorities ‘ appointed for that Purpose One Copy, signed by him, of all ‘ the Lists, Declarations, and other Documents specified in ‘ the Instructions annexed to the present Convention; and the ‘ said Authorities shall in consequence proceed to a Survey ‘ of the detained Vessel and her Cargo, and to an Inspection ‘ of her Crew, and of the Slaves who may be on board, after ‘ having previously given Notice of the Time of such Survey ‘ and Inspection to the Commander of the Cruizer, or to the ‘ Officer

‘ Officer who shall have brought in the Vessel, in order that ‘ he, or some Person in his Behalf, may be present thereat.

‘ A Declaration (Procès verbal) of these Proceedings shall
 ‘ be drawn up in Duplicate, signed by the Persons who shall ‘ have acted therein, or been present at the same ; and one of ‘ the said Declarations shall be delivered to the Commander ‘ of the Cruizer, or to the Officer who shall have been ap‘ pointed to bring in the detained Vessel.

‘ Article V.—The Vessels detained as before mentioned,
 ‘ their Masters, Crews, and Cargoes, shall be forthwith pro‘ ceeded against before the proper Tribunals in the respec‘ tive Countries according to the established Forms ; and if in ‘ consequence of such Proceedings the said Vessel shall be ‘ found to have been employed in the Slave Trade, or to ‘ have been fitted out for the Purposes thereof, the Master, ‘ the Crew, and the Accomplices, as well as the Ship and ‘ Cargo, shall be dealt with conformably to the respective ‘ Laws of the Two Countries.

‘ In case the said Vessels shall be confiscated a Portion of ‘ the Proceeds arising from their Sale shall be paid into the ‘ Hands of the Government to which the Captor belongs, to ‘ be distributed among the Officers and Crew of the capturing ‘ Ship. This Portion shall be Sixty-five per Centum of the ‘ Net Produce of the Sale, as long as such a Distribution of ‘ the Proceeds is consistent with the respective Laws of the ‘ Two Countries.

 ‘ Nations visited and detained in pursuance of the Convention ‘ of the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hun‘ dred and thirty-one, and of the Provisions herein-before ‘ recited, shall, unless Proof be given to the contrary, be ‘ held and taken of Right to have engaged in the Slave ‘ Trade, or to have been fitted out for the Purposes of such ‘ Traffic, if any of the Particulars herein-after specified shall ‘ be found in her Outfit or Equipment, or on board of her ; ‘ videlicet,

‘ 1°. Having her Hatches fitted with open Gratings, in‘ stead of being close Hatches, as usual in Merchant Vessels.

‘ 2°. Having more Divisions or Bulk-heads in the Hold

‘ 5°. Having on board a Supply of Water more than suffi-

 ‘ Vessel that such Casks or other Vessels should only be used ‘ for the Reception of Palm Oil, or be employed in any ‘ other lawful Trade.

 ‘ granted either to the Master or to the Owner, or to any other ‘ Person interested in the Equipment or Lading of a Merchant ‘ Vessel in which any of the Particulars specified in the pre‘ ceding Article shall be found, even if the Tribunals should ‘ not pronounce any Condemnation in consequence of her ‘ Detention.

‘ Article VIII.—When a Merchant Vessel of either of ‘ the Two Nations shall have been visited and detained il‘ legally or without sufficient Cause of Suspicion, or when the amended this Session.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

SCHEDULE referred to by the foregoing Act.

I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That and I make this solemn Declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true; and by virtue of the Provisions of an Act made and passed in the Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act" [here insert the Title of this Act].

CAP. LXIII.

An Act to repeal an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Year of His present Majesty relating to Weights and Measures, and to make other Provisions instead thereof.

[9th September 1835.]

4 & 5 W. 4. c. 49.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth and Fifth ‘ Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An ‘ Act to amend and render more effectual Two Acts of the Fifth and ‘ Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the ‘ Fourth relating to Weights and Measures: And whereas it is ex‘ pedient to repeal the same, and to make other Provisions instead ‘ thereof:’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Recited Act
repealed.

Nothing herein to interfere with any thing done, or to prevent the Recovery of Penalties, under the repealed Act.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to interfere with any Acts done or Appointments made under the Authority of the said Act, or to prevent the suing for or Recovery of any Penalty incurred by any Offence committed against the Provisions of the said Act previous to the Repeal thereof in and by this Act, or to hinder or defeat any Prosecution commenced or to be brought for such Offence; but all Penalties and Forfeitures so incurred may be sued for and recovered in the same Manner as any Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under the Provisions of this Act are recoverable.

5 G. 4. c. 74.

6 G. 4. c. 12.

III. ‘ And whereas an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the ‘ Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled ‘ An Act for ascertaining and establishing Uniformity of Weights ‘ and Measures: And whereas another Act passed in the Sixth ‘ Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to ‘ prolong the Time of the Commencement of an Act of the last Session ‘ of

‘ of Parliament, for ascertaining and establishing Uniformity of ‘ Weights and Measures; and to amend the said Act: And whereas, ‘ notwithstanding the Provisions of the said recited Acts, many ‘ Sets of Weights and Measures of old accustomed and different ‘ Shapes have been made and verified and stamped by the Cham‘ berlains as well as by the Auditor in the Exchequer, as Models ‘ of the said new Standards, and have been used as Standard ‘ Weights and Measures under the said recited Acts, although ‘ different in Shape and Form from the Standards prescribed by ‘ the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid; and it is there‘ fore expedient that such Standard Weights and Measures should ‘ be made legal, and that the Comptroller General or some other ‘ Officer of the Exchequer duly authorized should be empowered ‘ to compare and verify, and stamp as so compared and verified, ‘ Standards of Length, Weight, or Measure, although not exact ‘ Models and Copies in Shape and Form of the respective Standards ‘ of Length, Weight, and Measure deposited under the Provisions ‘ of the said first-recited Acts in the Office of the said Cham‘ berlains and Auditor: And whereas it is expedient that the Use ‘ of all Weights and Measures not in conformity with the Weights ‘ and Measures established by the said recited Acts should be pro‘ hibited, and that the Use of the Heaped Measure should be ‘ abolished;’ be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned recited Acts as require that all Weights and Measures shall be Models and Copies in Shape or Form of the Standards deposited in the Exchequer; and also so much of the said recited Acts as allow the Use of Weights and Measures not in conformity with the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures established by the said Acts, or allow Goods or Merchandize to be bought or sold by any Weights or Measures established by local Custom or founded on special Agreement, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Provisions in recited Acts as to Models and Copies of Standard Weights and Measures
 repealed.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Weights and Measures which have been so verified and stamped at the Exchequer at Westminster as Copies of the Standard Weights and Measures, corresponding in Weight and Capacity with those established by the said recited Acts, shall be deemed and taken to be legal Weights and Measures, to be used for Comparison as Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, although not similar in Shape to those required under the Provisions of the said recited Acts; and that the Comptroller General, or some other Officer of the Exchequer at Westminster duly authorized, may compare and verify, and stamp as so compared and verified, as correct Standard Measures of a Yard, and as correct Standard Weights, and as correct Standard Measures of Capacity, any Weights and Measures which shall correspond in Length, Weight, and Capacity with the Standards, or Parts or Multiples thereof respectively, deposited in the Exchequer under the said Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, although such Weights and Measures may not be Models or Copies in Shape or Form of the Standards so deposited as aforesaid; any thing in the said recited Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Weights and Measures stamped at the Exchequer declared legal, although not similar in Shape to those required by recited Acts.
 Superintending Officer may verify and stamp Weights and Measures of other Form than those prescribed by the Act
 5 G. 4. c. 74.

 Weights and Measures which may have become defective, or have Heaped Measure abolished.

Articles heretofore sold by Heaped Measure, how to be sold.

Coals to be sold by Weight and not by Measure.

with be sent to the Exchequer at Westminster for the Purpose of being again compared and verified, and shall be stamped as re-verified Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, provided that the Comptroller General or other Officer appointed for such Verification shall deem them fit to be used for the Purposes of Standards; and every new Comparison and Verification shall be indorsed upon the original Indenture of Verification; and such Weights and Measures shall be so stamped upon Payment of Fees of Verification only; and the Comptroller General or other Officer at the Exchequer duly authorized shall keep an Account or Register of all Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures that shall have been verified at the Exchequer.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Measure called the Winchester Bushel, and the Lineal Measure called the Scotch Ell, and all local or customary Measures, shall be abolished; and every Person who shall sell, by any Denomination of Measure other than one of the Imperial Measures, or some Multiple or some aliquot Part, such as Half, the Quarter, the Eighth, the Sixteenth, or the Thirty-second Parts thereof, shall, on Conviction, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings for every such Sale: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Sale of any Articles in any Vessel, where such Vessel is not represented as containing any Amount of Imperial Measure, or of any fixed, local, or customary Measure heretofore in use.

VII. ' And whereas the Heaped Measure is liable to considerable ' Variation;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said recited Acts as relate to the Heaped Measure shall be and are hereby repealed, and the Use of the Heaped Measure shall be abolished, and all Bargains, Sales, and Contracts which shall be made after the passing of this Act by the Heaped Measure shall be null and void; and every Person who shall sell any Articles by the Heaped Measure shall, on Conviction, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every such Sale.

VIII. IX. ' And whereas the Sale of all Coals, Slack, Culm, and ' Cannel of every Description by Weight, and not by Measure, ' would tend greatly to prevent the Commission of Frauds and ' Impositions in the Vend and Delivery of such Coals, Slack, Culm, ' and Cannel of every Description;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred hundred and thirty-six all Coals, Slack, Culm, and Cannel of every Description shall be sold by Weight and not by Measure; and every Person who shall from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six sell any Coals, Slack, Culm, or Cannel of every Description by Measure, and not by Weight, shall, on Conviction, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every such Sale.

XII. And be it enacted, That all Weights which shall be made after the passing of this Act of the Weight of One Pound Avoirdupois or more shall have the Number of Pounds contained in every such Weight stamped or cast on the Top or Side thereof in legible Figures and Letters; and that all Measures of Capacity which shall be made after the passing of this Act shall have their Contents denominated, stamped, or marked on the Outside of such Measures in legible Figures and Letters.

Contents of Weights and Measures to be stamped on them.

XIII. 'And whereas the Use of Weights made of soft Materials affords Facility to Fraud;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six no Weight made of Lead or of Pewter, or of any Mixture thereof, shall be stamped or used: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Use of Lead or Pewter, or of any Mixture thereof, in the Manufacture of Weights, if they be wholly and substantially cased with Brass, Copper, or Iron, and legibly stamped or marked "Cased," or shall prevent the Insertion of such a Plug of Lead or Pewter into Weights as shall be bond fide necessary for the Purpose of adjusting them and of affixing thereon the Stamp herein-after mentioned.

Commissioners of the Treasury authorized to appoint Distributors and Sub-Distributors of Stamps to be Collectors of the Land and Assessed Taxes in Scotland.

X. ' And whereas the Revenues arising from the Duties of ' Stamps and the Land and Assessed Taxes in Great Britain are ' now under the Care and Management of One Consolidated ' Board of Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and it would ' facilitate the Collection of the Land and Assessed Taxes in Scot- ' land, and tend to reduce the Expence of receiving and remitting ' that Branch of the Public Revenue, if the several Distributors and ' Sub-Distributors of Stamps or other Persons employed in the ' Receipt and Collection of the Stamp Duties in Scotland were also ' appointed Collectors of the Land and Assessed Taxes;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to appoint such and so many of the Distributors and Sub-Distributors of Stamps in Scotland, or such other Persons as the said Commissioners may think fit, to be Collectors or other Officers for collecting and receiving the Land Tax and Assessed Taxes in Scotland, and for such Parts of Scotland and with such Salaries and Allowances as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit, and such Persons shall hold their respective Offices during the Will and Pleasure of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or of the Commissioners of of Stamps and Taxes, in such Manner as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall direct; and such Persons shall in all Matters and Things relating to the Execution of their Duties be subject to the Authority, Directions, and Control of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and shall obey such Orders and Instructions as shall from Time to Time be issued to them by the said Commissioners respectively: Provided always, that the Land Tax Commissioners and Commissioners for putting in execution the Assessed Tax Acts in Scotland shall have no Power or Authority whatever to appoint Persons to collect the said Land Tax and Assessed Taxes, or to remove, or call to account or examine, or enforce Payment of Balances due by the Persons appointed by virtue of this Act, any thing in any Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that if any Persons other than the Distributors and Sub-Distributors of Stamps in Scotland shall be appointed as aforesaid to be Collectors or other Officers as aforesaid, then the Names of such Persons, with their respective Salaries and Allowances, shall be laid by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury before Parliament within Twenty-one Days after the Commencement of the Session of Parliament which shall next follow every such Appointment.

Proviso.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Collectors and other Officers to be appointed as aforesaid shall, before they shall act in the Execution of their respective Offices, give Security by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to such an Amount and in such Terms as the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes shall think fit, and with sufficient Sureties to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners.

Such Collectors, &c. to give Security.

XII. And be it enacted, That all Bonds, Bills, and Securities whatsoever to be entered into with or given by the Collectors to be appointed under the Provisions of this Act, or their respective Sureties, with relation to the said Duties of Land and Assessed Taxes respectively, shall be free from all Stamp Duty whatever; and no Collector appointed under this Act as aforesaid shall in any Case be liable to or charged with any Stamp Duty, Fee, or Gratuity on his Commission, Warrant, or other Instrument, to be obtained or had, either on his first Appointment or any renewed or succeeding Appointment to be such Collector as aforesaid under this Act, nor to any Fee or Gratuity for any Matter or Thing incident to the Execution of his Office, or for auditing or passing his Accounts, either in His Majesty's Treasury or the Office for Taxes, or any other Office.

Bonds, Commissions, &c. under this Act to be free from Stamp Duty and Fees.

XIII. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the said Acts, so far as the same relate to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it is enacted, that the Land Tax in Scotland shall be assessed, raised, levied, and paid under the Regulations of the last-recited Act; and it is expedient to alter the said Enactment; be it therefore enacted, That the Land Tax in Scotland shall be recovered, levied, collected, and paid under the same Rules, Regulations, Provisions, and Penalties as the Assessed Taxes in Scotland now are or may hereafter be recovered, levied, collected, and paid, any thing in the said last-recited Act or any other Act or Acts contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XIV. ‘ And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper in Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof, a Duty of Two Pounds and Two Shillings, over and above all other Duties, was granted and is now payable in Great Britain for every Horse, Mare, or Gelding entered to start or run for any Plate, Prize, Sum of Money, or other Thing whatsoever: And whereas certain Duties of Assessed Taxes, amounting to the Sum of One Pound Eight Shillings and Nine-pence, have also been granted and are now payable in Great Britain under Schedule (E.), Number Three, of Two several Acts passed respectively in the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years of the Reign of the said King George the Third, for every Horse, Mare, or Gelding kept for the Purpose of racing or running for any Plate, Prize, or Sum of Money, or other Thing, or kept in training for any of the said Purposes: And whereas the said several Duties of Two Pounds Two Shillings and One Pound Eight Shillings and Nine-pence are respectively levied and collected by different Officers and under different Rules and Regulations, and it would give Relief to the Persons chargeable therewith, and tend to facilitate the Collection thereof, if the same were reduced in Amount, and assessed and levied in One Sum, in the Manner herein-after mentioned;’ be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said several Duties of Two Pounds Two Shillings and One Pound Eight Shillings and Nine-pence granted and now payable as aforesaid under and by virtue of the said several Acts herein-before recited or referred to shall be and the same are hereby severally repealed, save and except as to any Arrears of the said respective Duties, and any Penalties incurred in relation thereto, all which said Arrears and Penalties may be sued for, recovered, levied, and applied in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

or Letters

establishing the Excise Incorporation in Scotland.

‘ WHEREAS, for the Purpose of raising a Fund by Contri‘ butions out of their Salaries for Payment of Annuities to ‘ their Widows and Orphans, the Officers of Excise under the Ma‘ nagement of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland were, by a ‘ Royal Charter or Letters Patent under the Seal appointed by the ‘ Treaty of Union to be kept and made use of in place of the Great ‘ Seal of Scotland, bearing Date the Fourteenth Day of July in the ‘ Twenty-

‘ Twenty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George
 ‘ the Second, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven ‘ hundred and forty-eight, constituted, erected, incorporated, and ‘ perpetually established and confirmed into One Body Politic and ‘ Corporate, or legal Incorporation and Society, under the Title and ‘ Name of “ The Excise Incorporation in Scotland,” and as such ‘ and by such Name to have a perpetual Endurance and Succes‘ sion; and for the Ends and Purposes of raising such Fund, and ‘ making such Payment, it was by the said Charter or Letters ‘ Patent, among other Things, ordained, directed, ordered, and ‘ appointed that the said Corporation should comprehend and be ‘ distinguished into Three different Classes; the First whereof to ‘ consist of General Supervisors, General Surveyors, and Collec‘ tors, or such like Offices, if held under any other Names at any ‘ Time thereafter; the Second Class to consist of Supervisors, Sur‘ veyors, Examiners, Accomptants, and Clerks, or such like Offices, ‘ if under other Names; the Third Class, of Gaugers, Supernume‘ raries, or Assistants, or such like Offices if under other Names; ‘ and also that in order to establish the said Fund each Member of ‘ the Corporation should pay the Sums after mentioned, according ‘ to their Class, during their Lives yearly, and by Eight equal Pay-
 ‘ Four Shillings Sterling Money yearly; those of the Second Class, ‘ Two Pounds Eight Shillings Sterling Money yearly; and those of ‘ Annuity of Sixteen Pounds Sterling, of each Contributor of the ‘ Second Class a yearly Annuity of Twelve Pounds Sterling, and of ‘ each Contributor of the Third Class a yearly Annuity of Eight

45 G. 3. c. 31.

‘ and Provision was also made in and by the said Royal Charter ‘ or Letters Patent for raising and managing the said Fund and ‘ Contributions, and paying the said Annuities, by Managers to be ‘ elected and appointed as therein was directed: And whereas it ‘ having been found by Experience that higher Rates of Contribu‘ tion and the Interest of a larger Stock of Capital, in proportion ‘ to the increased Number of Members, would be necessary for ‘ raising the same and for extending the Benefits of the said Royal ‘ Charter or Letters Patent, an Act was passed in the Forty-fifth ‘ Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘ An Act for confirming the Charter and enlarging the Powers of the ‘ Corporation of the Officers of Excise in Scotland, by which said ‘ Act the said Charter and Letters Patent, and all the Regulations, ‘ Ordinances, and Appointments therein contained, and all the Pro‘ ceedings had in consequence thereof, were confirmed, so far as the ‘ same were not altered by the said Act, and by the said Act the ‘ said Incorporation was directed to be continued and distinguished ‘ into Three Classes; (that is to say,) the First Class thereof to con‘ sist of General Supervisors, General Surveyors, and Collectors, ‘ along with the Auditor, the Comptroller, the Cashier, the Secretary ‘ or Secretaries, the Solicitor or Solicitors, the General Account‘ ants, and the General Examiner, and the Deputies established in ‘ the actual Execution of those Offices, or the Persons in the actual ‘ Occupation of Offices of the like Nature, if held under other or ‘ different Names; the Second Class to consist of Supervisors, ‘ Surveyors, Examiners, Accountants, and Clerks in the General ‘ Excise Office in Edinburgh receiving Salaries directly out of the ‘ Revenue, or the Persons established in the actual Occupation of ‘ Offices of the like Nature, if held under any other or different ‘ Names; the Third Class to consist of Gaugers or Officers, Super‘ numeraries and Assistants, or the Persons established in the actual ‘ Occupation of Offices of the like Nature, if held under other or ‘ different Names; and every Member of the said Incorporation is ‘ by the said Act made subject and liable to and to pay the Sum or ‘ Rate herein-after mentioned according to his proper Class, during ‘ his Life yearly, by Four equal quarterly Payments; (that is to ‘ say,) each Member of the First Class, Seven Pounds and Ten ‘ Shillings; each Member of the Second Class, Five Pounds Twelve ‘ Shillings and Sixpence; and each Member of the Third Class, ‘ Three Pounds Fifteen Shillings; and Provision is thereby also ‘ made for the Payment of the Difference of Rates on the Promo‘ tion of Members from a lower to a higher Class, and for the Pay‘ ment of certain additional Rates on Marriage; but an Option ‘ being by the said Act given to the Contributors under the said ‘ Royal Charter or Letters Patent to accede or not to the Provisions ‘ of the said Act, in order to secure upon just and equitable Terms ‘ the limited Advantages proposed by the said Royal Charter or ‘ Letters Patent, it is directed by the said Act that every non-acced-‘ ing Member should, in pursuance of a Provision made and reserved ‘ to that Effect in the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, be ‘ called upon and obliged in future regularly to pay into the said ‘ Fund, towards the due and necessary Support thereof, not only ‘ his ordinary annual Contribution, and the Rates imposed in case ‘ of any second or subsequent Marriage, as directed by the afore‘ said

‘ said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, but also an Addition to his ‘ said ordinary Contributions, and along with the same, at the Rate ‘ of Seven Shillings and Sixpence annually, for a Contribution of ‘ the Third Class over and above his then present Rate of One ‘ Pound Twelve Shillings and Sixpence, making together the annual ‘ Rate of Two Pounds, and so in proportion for those of the Two ‘ higher Classes, as before distinguished respectively; and all the ‘ Rates and Sums of Money so to be contributed, together with all ‘ that had already been contributed and accumulated under the ‘ Royal Charter or Letters Patent aforesaid, were by the said Act ‘ directed to continue and be vested in and applied by Order and ‘ Direction of the said Incorporation, and the Managers and ‘ Cashiers thereof, appointed as therein mentioned, for behoof of the ‘ same and their Successors in Office, to and for the Uses and Pur‘ poses after mentioned, (that is to say,) in the first place, for de‘ fraying the necessary Expences incurred and to be incurred in the ‘ passing of the said Act, and in establishing and executing the ‘ Scheme; secondly, for the further raising of a Fund and Capital ‘ Stock for the Purposes of the Scheme to the Extent therein limit‘ ed, subject and applicable to the Payment of Annuities to Widows ‘ and Children of Contributors, according to the Three several ‘ Classes therein-before distinguished, at the Rates after specified; ‘ (that is to say,) that there should be paid as a yearly Annuity to ‘ the Widow or to the lawful Children of each Contributor, of the ‘ First Class, Thirty-two Pounds; of the Second Class, Twenty-four ‘ Pounds; and of the Third Class, Sixteen Pounds; such several ‘ Annuities to be paid by equal Portions quarterly, and within One ‘ Month after each Quarter Day respectively, to wit, on the Fifth ‘ Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and ‘ Tenth Day of October, successively, commencing the First Quar‘ ter’s Payment at the first of these Days which should happen ‘ after the Death of the Contributor, and so on regularly during the ‘ natural Life of the Widow and her remaining unmarried, or until ‘ the youngest surviving Child of such Contributor should attain the ‘ Age of Sixteen Years complete, whichever of these Events should ‘ happen the latest; provided that the Widows and Children of ‘ Contributors under the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent not ‘ acceding to the Scheme under the said recited Act were to be ‘ paid Annuities only at the former limited Rates under the said ‘ Royal Charter or Letters Patent, and to continue to Children ‘ only until the youngest of such Children should attain the Age of ‘ Twelve Years, as provided by the said original Patent; and in ‘ order to render the Funds thereby established sufficient and suit‘ able for answering the several Purposes of the said Act, Power ‘ was thereby given to raise a Capital Fund or Stock, proportioned ‘ to the Number of Contributors, according to certain Rules and ‘ Regulations in the said Act contained; and it was amongst other ‘ Things further provided, that as soon and so often as the said ‘ Stock should amount to the Capital Sum therein described and ‘ limited, in proportion to the Number of Contributors, the Surplus ‘ which might be found above that Amount upon balancing the ‘ Accounts ending at the Fifth Day of July annually should be set ‘ apart and applied by the Managers of the Incorporation at the ‘ Time in such Portions as they should judge best, for augmenting ‘ the

‘ the Annuities to the Widows and Children of the Contributors ‘ proportionably, such Augmentation not to exceed the One Half ‘ of the ordinary Annuity payable to each Annuitant; and in case ‘ of any Surplus beyond what should be judged necessary for making ‘ such Augmentation within the Limit aforesaid, Power is given to ‘ the Managers to apply such further Surplus towards paying the ‘ Annuities in the succeeding Year, and in consequence to direct ‘ and allow an Abatement to be made proportionably out of the ‘ ordinary Rates payable by the whole Contributors in the said ‘ Year respectively, or, with the Assent of the Contributors, to ‘ form such other Plan for the Application of such last-mentioned ‘ Surplus, and to apply the same accordingly, in such Manner as ‘ should appear most agreeable to the Majority of the Contributors, ‘ and most for the Benefit of all concerned; and Provision is by the ‘ said Act also made for appointing Managers for conducting the ‘ Affairs of the said Incorporation: And whereas the Capital Sum ‘ in the said Act described and limited having been raised, and a ‘ Surplus having been found, the Managers of the said Incorpora‘ tion have augmented the Annuities payable to the Widows and ‘ Children of Contributors to the Extent of One Half more than ‘ the Amount specified in the said Act; (that is to say,) to the ‘ Widows and Children of Contributors, Acceders to the said Act, ‘ of the First Class, an Annuity of Forty-eight Pounds; of the ‘ Second Class, Thirty-six Pounds; and of the Third Class, ‘ Twenty-four Pounds, respectively; and to the Widows and ‘ Children of Contributors under the said Royal Charter or Letters ‘ Patent, Non-acceders to the said Act, of the First Class, Twenty-‘ four Pounds; of the Second Class, Eighteen Pounds; and of the ‘ Third Class, Twelve Pounds; and a further Surplus beyond ‘ what was necessary for such Augmentation having been found, the ‘ Managers of the said Incorporation have, with the Concurrence ‘ of the Majority of the Contributors, applied the same so as to ‘ lengthen the Period during which the said Annuities are to be ‘ payable to the Children of the said Contributors, (that is to say,) ‘ until the youngest of such Children, whether of acceding or non‘ acceding Contributors, shall have attained the Age of Eighteen ‘ Years: And whereas the Managers and Cashier of the said In‘ corporation have, under the Authority of the said recited Act, ‘ invested the Funds of the said Incorporation in the Purchase, in ‘ the Name of the Cashier, of certain Shares amounting in the ‘ whole to the Sum of Sixteen thousand five hundred Pounds of ‘ the Capital or Joint Stock of the Bank of England, and in the ‘ Purchase, in the Name of the said Cashier, of certain Shares ‘ amounting in the whole to the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds ‘ of the Capital or Joint Stock of the Royal Bank of Scotland, and ‘ have also, under the Powers of the said Act, lent out on heritable ‘ Securities, taken in the Name of the Cashier of the said Incorpo‘ ration and his Successors in Office, certain Sums of Money, ‘ amounting in the whole to the Sum of Twenty-three thousand ‘ five hundred Pounds, of and to which said several Sums the said ‘ Managers and Cashiers now stand possessed and entitled for and ‘ on behalf of the said Incorporation: And whereas the said In‘ corporation now consists, more or less, of One Contributor of the ‘ First Class, Seven Contributors of the Second Class, and Seventeen Contributors of the Third Class, being Contributors under the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, but who refused or neglected to accede as Contributors under the said recited Act, and of Thirty Contributors under the said recited Act of the First Class, One hundred and nineteen such Contributors of the Second Class, and Five hundred and fifty-five such Contributors of the Third Class : And whereas the whole Revenue of Excise of the United Kingdom being now placed under the Management of One General Board of Commissioners, all Officers in the Service of the Excise are Officers for the whole of the United Kingdom, and not for any one Part thereof, and are removeable and removed from any one Part of the United Kingdom to any other Part thereof, according to the Exigencies of the Public Service, and by the Abolition of the Chief Office of Excise at Edinburgh the principal Officers and Accountants who were there stationed, and were the principal Managers of the Affairs of the said Incorporation, have either ceased to be Officers of the Revenue, by the Abolition of their Offices, or have been removed to the Chief Office of Excise in London, and inasmuch as the Demands of the Public Service will not allow of Collectors and other Officers being called from their public Duties to meet together and act as Managers, it has been found impossible to continue the Purposes of the said Incorporation and the Management of the Affairs thereof; and it has become therefore expedient to abolish the same, and to make Provision for securing the Rights and Interests of the existing Contributors, and in order to effect the same, that the said Shares in the Stock of the Bank of England and Royal Bank of Scotland respectively should be sold, and the Monies arising from such Sales, together with all Monies which, before such Sales shall be effected, shall have been received and paid to the Account of the said Incorporation, be carried to the Account of the Consolidated Duties of Excise, and be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer under that Head; and the several Sums, amounting to the Sum of Twenty-three thousand five hundred Pounds, together with the Interest arising therefrom as soon as the Bonds given for Payment of the same are discharged, and such Interest as shall in the meantime be payable should be carried to Account, and paid in manner before mentioned; and that no Person not having been a Contributor before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall be admitted or deemed to have been admitted a Contributor, but that the present Contributors, having become Contributors before the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, shall continue the Payment of their respective Rates, which shall in like Manner be paid over, under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, to the Consolidated Duties of Excise; and that all Annuities to the Widows and Children of Contributors now payable, or which shall hereafter become payable, according to the Provisions of the said recited Act, shall be paid out of the Duties of Excise, and be placed to the Account of Incidents of that Department : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority ‘ granted in this Session of Parliament, has been issued without requiring, by Persons issuing or paying, and without the taking by the Persons receiving Half Pay; the Oaths prescribed to be taken by Officers claiming Half Pay; and Part of the said Monies has been paid to Officers claiming and entitled to Half Pay who at the same Time held and may still hold the Situation of and serve respectively as Surgeons, Serjeant Majors, Serjeants, Corporals, or Privates in the General or Local Militia, or Yeomanry or Volunteer Corps, in Great Britain or Ireland; and it is expedient that all such Persons should be indemnified:’ Be it therefore enacted, That all Persons concerned in the advising, authorizing, or directing the issuing, or in the issuing of any Half Pay, or any Monies for Half Pay, or in the Application of any Money appropriated by the said Act for that Purpose, or in the receiving or being concerned in the receiving any Portion of the Money so appropriated for such Half Pay, without requiring or taking the said Oaths, or to or on account of any such Officers or Persons as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby fully indemnified, and shall be and are hereby fully exonerated and discharged from all Penalties, Forfeitures, Prosecutions, or Proceedings, in respect of any thing done in relation thereto, in all Cases in which such Half Pay, or Payment for or in respect of Half Pay, shall have been or may hereafter be issued or received in conformity with the Provisions of the said recited Act or this Act, and the Usages heretofore established and observed in relation to the issuing, paying, and receiving of Half Pay in all other respects, except so far as relates to the demanding, requiring, or taking the said Oaths; and all such Payments and Issues of Half Pay which shall have been or may be issued to any such Person as aforesaid shall be deemed valid and effectual Payments, and the Paymaster General, and all other Persons concerned in the issuing and paying the same, shall be and are hereby fully discharged and exonerated in respect thereof in all Accounts relating to such Issues and Payments; any thing contained in any Act or Acts, or any Law, Rules, or Regulations, relating to the issuing and paying of Half Pay, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Half Pay allowed to the Officers of the Manx Fencibles

XXV. ‘ And whereas the Officers of the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles engaged to serve in the said Corps upon a Stipulation contained in the Letter of Service under which they were raised, that they should be allowed to receive any Half Pay to which they might be entitled, notwithstanding their holding Subaltern Commissions in the said Corps; but no Provision has been made by Parliament for Payment of such Half Pay; and it is therefore expedient that Provision should be now made for the Payment of the Arrears of Half Pay to such Officers as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted, That Officers who were entitled to Half Pay, and who accepted or held Subaltern Commissions in the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles, shall, notwithstanding their having held the Full Pay of such Commissions, be entitled to receive the Arrears of such Half Pay for any Year or Time in which they shall not have been allowed to receive the same, upon taking the Oath before the Officer usually administering Oaths to Persons for the Purpose of receiving Half Pay, that they had not, in any Year or Time for which such Arrear is claimed, any Office or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides their Allowance

ance of Half Pay, save and except their Pay as such Subaltern Officers of the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles; and the taking the Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Officer to receive his Half Pay.

XXVI. ‘ And whereas Chaplains of Regiments who have been placed upon Half Pay have not been allowed to receive such Half Pay in some Years, in consequence of being in possession at the Time of certain Ecclesiastical Benefices or Preferments, though the same were not in the Patronage of the Crown: And whereas it has been judged fair and reasonable that they should be allowed to receive such Half Pay, though in possession of Ecclesiastical Preferment, provided the same was private Patronage, and not derived from the Crown; and that they should also be entitled to receive the Arrears of Half Pay for such former Years as aforesaid:’ Be it therefore enacted, That all Chaplains who, after having been placed upon Half Pay, shall have been refused or have been unable to receive such Half Pay in any Year, in consequence of holding any Ecclesiastical Benefice not derived from or in the Gift of the Crown, shall be entitled to receive the Arrears of such Half Pay for such Year, upon making Affidavit before the proper Officer for administering Oaths to Persons for entitling them to receive Half Pay, that they held no Ecclesiastical Benefice or Preferment in any Year derived from the Crown, nor any Place or Employment of Profit under His Majesty; and the taking the said Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Chaplain to receive his Half Pay.

Half Pay Allowances to Chaplains of Regiments not being in possession of Ecclesiastical Benefices derived from the Crown.

XXVII. ‘ And whereas by the said recited Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty the several Supplies which had been granted to His Majesty as therein mentioned were appropriated to the several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, amongst which any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Six hundred and seven thousand Pounds in the whole was appropriated to be paid on account of Half Pay for the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half Pay as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf:’ Now it is hereby provided, enacted, and declared, That so much of the said Sum of Six hundred and seven thousand Pounds as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said Reduced Officers, according to the Rules to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall and may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed or have lost their Limbs in the late War, or such others as, by reason of their long Service, or otherwise, His Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants, under His Majesty’s Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any thing in this Act or in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

By 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 84. a Sum was appropriated to be paid to Half Pay Officers, the Surplus of which is hereby authorized to be disposed of as His Majesty shall direct.

XXVIII. And as to the Sum of One hundred forty-eight thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine Pounds by this Act appropriated for defraying the Charge of Pensions to be paid to the Widows of Officers of His Majesty’s Land Forces as aforesaid, and as to the Sum of One hundred and fifty-nine thousand Pounds by this Act appropriated for defraying the Charge of Allowances on the Compassionate List, of Allowances as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, and of Pensions to Officers for Wounds, as aforesaid; it is hereby enacted and declared, That no Widow of an Officer of the Land Forces, and no Person claiming an Allowance on the Compassionate List, or of Allowances as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, shall have or receive any Part of the same without taking an Oath to such Purport and Effect as shall be required in that Behalf by His Majesty's Warrant directing the Issue of such Pensions and Allowances to be received, such Oath to be taken before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or other Person duly authorized to administer an Oath, or before the Cashier of Widows Pensions, or the First Assistant Examiner of the same, for the Time being, in the Office of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Land Forces, who are hereby authorized to administer the same.

Widows and Persons claiming Pensions or Allowances shall take the required Oath.

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 74.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years

 ‘ cember One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: And whereas ‘ by the Operation of the said Act the Business of certain Offices in ‘ the Court of Common Pleas and of the Alienation Office has ‘ almost wholly ceased; and it is expedient that the said Offices ‘ should be abolished, and the few Duties remaining to be per-

Searches may be made and Copies taken, which shall be as available as heretofore.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five Searches may be made, and Copies or Extracts of and from the said Records, Books, and Documents shall and may be had and taken, at such Times and in such Manner as hath been the accustomed Practice in the Offices hereby abolished; and all such Copies or Extracts, signed and authenticated by the said Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be as available in Evidence, and as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as the same would by Law have been if the same had been signed, authenticated, and given by the Officers whose Offices are hereby abolished, or any of them.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December any Fine or Fines usually called Pre Fines and Post Fines, now payable on Alienation of Lands or other Hereditaments to the Receiver General of Alienation Fines, in Cases where the Writ of Dedimus or any other Writ in the regular Proceedings of levying a Fine or suffering a Common Recovery shall have been issued on or before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three shall be assessed by and paid to the Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid, in like Manner as the same is or are now paid and payable to the said Receiver General of Alienation Fines; and the said Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being is hereby required to keep a true and full Account of every Pre and Post Fine received by him, and to account for such Fines to the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury at such Times and in such Manner as he or they may direct.

Same Fees as heretofore to be received and accounted for, and Treasury to affix Remuneration of Registrar for performing the Duties imposed upon him.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid, from and after the Thirty-first Day of December, to demand and receive the same Fees and Emoluments for all Proceedings, Matters, and Things done, performed, filed, or recorded by him as the several Officers whose Offices are hereby abolished have been accustomed to demand and receive; and the said Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being is hereby required to account for all such Fees and Emoluments received by him to the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury at such Times and in such Manner as he or they may direct; and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury is and are hereby authorized and empowered to allow such Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being such Remuneration for the Performance of the Duties imposed upon him by this Act as he or they shall think reasonable and proper.

VII. ' And whereas by the Operation of the said in part recited Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries several Lords of Liberties and other Persons in England and Wales, who are lawfully entitled to receive certain Sums or Fines, or Parts of Fines, payable on the Alienation of Land and other Hereditaments by Fine or Recovery, have been and will be wholly deprived thereof, and it is reasonable and fit that Compensation should be made to the said Persons for such Losses; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands to order and direct that from and after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three such annual or other Compensation as in his or their Discretion shall seem just and reasonable shall be made to all and every the Lords of Liberties, Lessees or Grantees under the Crown, Bodies Corporate and Politic and other Persons who at the Time of the passing of the said Act were lawfully entitled to Fines or Parts of Fines payable on Alienation of Land and other Hereditaments in England or Wales as aforesaid, for any Loss which they have and will respectively sustain by reason of the Abolition of such Fines; and all such Compensations, whether annual or in gross, shall be issued and paid and payable out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that an Account of all such Compensations shall within Fourteen Days next after the same shall be so granted be laid before the Commons House of Parliament, if Parliament shall be then assembled, or if Parliament shall not be then assembled then within Fourteen Days after the Meeting of Parliament then next following.

IX. ' And whereas by the Operation of this Act the Emolu' ments of the Acting Cursitors of the Court of Chancery will be ' entirely taken away, and it is reasonable and fit that Compensation ' should be made to the Persons now holding those Situations, for ' the Loss thereof;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, by Warrant under his or their Hands, to order and direct that such annual or other Compensation as to him or them, in their Discretion, shall seem just and reasonable, shall be made to the Persons now performing the Duties of Acting Cursitors of the Court of Chancery, for any Loss of Emoluments arising from such Employment which they may respectively sustain by reason of the Abolition of the Offices of the Cursitors of the said Court by the Provisions of this Act, and such Compensations, whether annual or in gross, shall be issued and paid and payable out of and be charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that an Account

' intituled An Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries, and ' for the Substitution of more simple Modes of Assurance, the Business ' of the Cursitors of the High Court of Chancery has been greatly ' diminished, and it is expedient that their Offices should be ' abolished, and the few remaining Duties transferred to some other ' Officer belonging to the said Court;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December the Offices of the Cursitors of the said High Court of Chancery shall utterly cease and determine, and all and every the Duties of the said Cursitors shall be performed by the Clerks of the Petty Bag

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Clerks of the Petty Bag Office for the Time being, from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December, to demand and receive the same Fees for all Acts, Matters, and Things done, performed, and executed by them as the several Cursitors whose Offices are hereby abolished have been accustomed to demand and receive; and the said Clerks of the Petty Bag Office for the Time being are hereby required to account for all such Fees received by them to the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, at such Times and in such Manner as he or they may direct; and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury is and are hereby authorized and empowered to allow the Clerks of the Petty Bag Office for the Time being such Remuneration for the Performance of the Duties hereby imposed upon them as he or they shall think reasonable and proper.

Clerks of the Petty Bag Office to receive the same Fees as the Cursitors for all Acts done by them.

[10th September 1835.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to make certain Additions to and Alterations in the present Law touching Letters Patent for Inventions, as well for the better protecting of Patentees in the Rights intended to be secured by such Letters Patent, as for the more ample Benefit of the Public from the same:’ Be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Person who, as Grantee, Assignee, or otherwise, hath obtained or who shall hereafter obtain Letters Patent, for the sole making, exercising, vending, or using of any Invention, may, if he think fit, enter with the Clerk of the Patents of England, Scotland, or Ireland, respectively, as the Case may be, having first obtained the Leave of His Majesty’s Attorney General or Solicitor General in case of an English Patent, of the Lord Advocate or Solicitor General of Scotland in the Case of a Scotch Patent, or of His Majesty’s Attorney General or Solicitor General for Ireland in the Case of an Irish Patent, certified by his Fiat and Signature, a Disclaimer of any Part of either the Title of the Invention or of the Specification, stating the Reason for such Disclaimer, or may, with such Leave as aforesaid, enter a Memorandum of any Alteration in the said Title or Specification, not being such Disclaimer or such Alteration as shall extend the exclusive Right granted by the said Letters Patent; and such Disclaimer or Memorandum of Alteration,

Any Person having obtained Letters Patent for any Invention may enter a Disclaimer of any Part of his Specification, or a Memorandum of any Alteration therein, which, when filed, to be deemed Part of such Specification.

Caveat may be entered as heretofore.

Disclaimer not to affect Actions pending at the Time.

Attorney General may require the Party to advertise his Disclaimer.

Mode of proceeding where Patentee is proved not to be the real Inventor, though he believed himself to be so.

If in any Action or Suit a Verdict or Decree shall pass for the Alteration, being filed by the said Clerk of the Patents, and enrolled with the Specification, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of such Letters Patent or such Specification in all Courts whatever: Provided always, that any Person may enter a Caveat, in like Manner as Caveats are now used to be entered, against such Disclaimer or Alteration; which Caveat being so entered shall give the Party entering the same a Right to have Notice of the Application being heard by the Attorney General or Solicitor General or Lord Advocate respectively: Provided also, that no such Disclaimer or Alteration shall be receivable in Evidence in any Action or Suit (save and except in any Proceeding by Scire facias) pending at the Time when such Disclaimer or Alteration was enrolled, but in every such Action or Suit the original Title and Specification alone shall be given in Evidence, and deemed and taken to be the Title and Specification of the Invention for which the Letters Patent have been or shall have been granted: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Attorney General or Solicitor General or Lord Advocate, before granting such Fiat, to require the Party applying for the same to advertise his Disclaimer or Alteration in such Manner as to such Attorney General or Solicitor General or Lord Advocate shall seem right, and shall, if he so require such Advertisement, certify in his Fiat that the same has been duly made.

II. And be it enacted, That if in any Suit or Action it shall be proved or specially found by the Verdict of a Jury that any Person who shall have obtained Letters Patent for any Invention or supposed Invention was not the first Inventor thereof, or of some Part thereof, by reason of some other Person or Persons having invented or used the same, or some Part thereof, before the Date of such Letters Patent, or if such Patentee or his Assigns shall discover that some other Person had, unknown to such Patentee, invented or used the same, or some Part thereof, before the Date of such Letters Patent, it shall and may be lawful for such Patentee or his Assigns to petition His Majesty in Council to confirm the said Letters Patent or to grant new Letters Patent, the Matter of which Petition shall be heard before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council; and such Committee, upon examining the said Matter, and being satisfied that such Patentee believed himself to be the first and original Inventor, and being satisfied that such Invention or Part thereof had not been publicly and generally used before the Date of such first Letters Patent, may report to His Majesty their Opinion that the Prayer of such Petition ought to be complied with, whereupon His Majesty may, if He think fit, grant such Prayer; and the said Letters Patent shall be available in Law and Equity to give to such Petitioner the sole Right of using, making, and vending such Invention as against all Persons whatsoever, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided, that any Person opposing such Petition shall be entitled to be heard before the said Judicial Committee: Provided also, that any Person, Party to any former Suit or Action touching such first Letters Patent, shall be entitled to have Notice of such Petition before presenting the same.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Action at Law or any Suit in Equity for an Account shall be brought in respect of any alleged Infringement of such Letters Patent heretofore or hereafter granted; or any Scire facias to repeal such Letters Patent, and if a Verdict shall pass for the Patentee or his Assigns, or if a final Decree or decretal Order shall be made for him or them, upon the Merits of the Suit, it shall be lawful for the Judge before whom such Action shall be tried to certify on the Record, or the Judge who shall make such Decree or Order to give a Certificate under his Hand, that the Validity of the Patent came in question before him, which Record or Certificate being given in Evidence in any other Suit or Action whatever touching such Patent, if a Verdict shall pass, or Decree or decretal Order be made, in favour of such Patentee or his Assigns, he or they shall receive Treble Costs in such Suit or Action, to be taxed at Three Times the taxed Costs, unless the Judge making such Second or other Decree or Order, or trying such Second or other Action, shall certify that he ought not to have such Treble Costs.

Patentee, the Judge may grant a Certificate, which being given in Evidence in any other Suit, shall entitle the Patentee, upon a Verdict in his Favour, to receive Treble Costs.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who now hath or shall hereafter obtain any Letters Patent as aforesaid shall advertise in the London Gazette Three Times, and in Three London Papers, and Three Times in some Country Paper published in the Town where or near to which he carried on any Manufacture of any Thing made according to his Specification, or near to or in which he resides in case he carried on no such Manufacture, or published in the County where he carries on such Manufacture or where he lives in case there shall not be any Paper published in such Town, that he intends to apply to His Majesty in Council for a Prolongation of his Term of sole using and vending his Invention, and shall petition His Majesty in Council to that Effect, it shall be lawful for any Person to enter a Caveat at the Council Office; and if His Majesty shall refer the Consideration of such Petition to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and Notice shall first be by him given to any Person or Persons who shall have entered such Caveats, the Petitioner shall be heard by his Counsel and Witnesses to prove his Case, and the Persons entering Caveats shall likewise be heard by their Counsel and Witnesses; whereupon, and upon hearing and inquiring of the whole Matter, the Judicial Committee may report to His Majesty that a further Extension of the Term in the said Letters Patent should be granted, not exceeding Seven Years; and His Majesty is hereby authorized and empowered, if He shall think fit, to grant new Letters Patent for the said Invention for a Term not exceeding Seven Years after the Expiration of the first Term, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided that no such Extension shall be granted if the Application by Petition shall not be made and prosecuted with Effect before the Expiration of the Term originally granted in such Letters Patent.

Mode of proceeding in case of Application for the Prolongation of Term of Patent.

V. And be it enacted, That in any Action brought against any Person for infringing any Letters Patent the Defendant on pleading thereto shall give to the Plaintiff, and in any Scire facias to repeal such Letters Patent the Plaintiff shall file with his Declaration, a Notice of any Objections on which he means to rely at the Trial of such Action, and no Objection shall be allowed to be made in behalf of such Defendant or Plaintiff respectively at such Trial unless he prove the Objections stated in such Notice: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for any Judge at Chambers, on Summons served

Actions for

VI. And be it enacted, That in any Action brought for infringing the Right granted by any Letters Patent, in taxing the Costs thereof Regard shall be had to the Part of such Case which has been proved at the Trial, which shall be certified by the Judge before whom the same shall be had, and the Costs of each Part of the Case shall be given according as either Party has succeeded or failed therein, Regard being had to the Notice of Objections, as well as the Counts in the Declaration, and without Regard to the general Result of the Trial.
